Morning — to the effect — 12 Sep. 1850
The indications now are highly favorable for a company of 250, old & young, to embark Nov. 1. I think they will be furnished as follows;
Windsor 50 — Danville 50.
Plymouth 100: Columbia 25:
Alligator 25. The Windsor people desire to settle at Arthington: all the others
at Brewerville, or near there".

He further says he shall go direct to Norfolk thence to Western Va. for his family.
So we may consider
the company up — 250 —
& all to land at Monrovia.
No need therefore for the ship to go to any other port.
