They may be worth looking up. Can you find him, or any thing about him. I would write him a letter if I was certain that I have his name correct.

I presume you have seen what the "Balt. Sun" of this morning says of our taking out the "Rescue". Did they think the "Golconda" could take her as cargo?

You may remember that in Feb. & March 1868 I wrote to the merchants in Baltimore and asked them to let us have three & four months time, on our purchases for the May 1st expedition, ~~then~~ we paying part cash,
