days the Could the Could carry would run her — & the only I could get was that she had come from Boston here — & he thought she had done it without stopping any where to take in Coal. Just so indefinite was every thing he did of & about her — only he did say this,
"She might be of great advantage "in towing the Golanda when there "was no wind to blow her". And now I am afraid he is going to have her & every thing about in this indefinite state in Mr. Coppinger's hands.
I have written Mr. C. all about it — & no doubt he will call that And what can I do? Can you do any thing? I expect Mr. Coppinger at home the 29th inst. — I have nothing to add as to Emigts. — the expedition &c. I did not know Hutton's color — or whether wanted go as cabin or steerage. Rev. says he will go — & will write you about it of night.
