Dr James Hall
Baltimore.

Dear Sir.

Your article for the Tribune & also the slip from a Balt.° paper as to sanitary advantages of the Cape I took to the Tribune & left for consideration. H. G. is out West for several weeks & I did not know personally the Editor. He handed me the slip & remarked that if either was published it would be the original article written for the Tribune. I enclose & return the slip.

Now about the Golconda. I saw a note in the Herald that "the G. from Savannah" entered Liverpool Sept 21. Was that the Col. Soc.° Ship?

A Clergyman in Massachusetts writes me that he desires to send a box of clothing, as do Mrs Tyler of Clay Ashland & enquires how best to send it. I write to enquire if the Golconda will be at Balt.° or Norfolk or whether there are Steamers from Boston
