WEDDING BELLS

FORD—HACKETT.

A very pretty but quiet wedding took place Christmas morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett, Still Pond. The contracting parties were: Miss Helen Hackett and Mr. Wallace Herman Ford, two very popular young people of this place. Miss Lydia Hackett, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid while Mr. Elwin Ford, cousin of the groom, was best man. The bride was tastily attired in a blue traveling suit with a large black hat with pink facing and pink roses, and white gloves. The bridesmaid wore a very pretty dress of pale green with large black hat, while the groom and best man wore the conventional black with tan gloves

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. X. Moore, while sweet music from Lohengrin was rendered by the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles A. Jewell. The parlor was trimmed most beautifully with holly, crow-foot and potted plants the color scheme being red and green. After the ceremony the bride and groom stood by the beautiful trimmed arch and received the best wishes of those present. Then from there they were all invited out to the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was served. Only the immediate families being present. Mr. and Mrs. Ford left on the afternoon train for a tour to be at home Jan. 1st.

CLOTHIER—PORTER.

A Christmas wedding ceremony was performed at the M. E. Church, Church Hill, at noon Christmas day. The contracting parties were: Mr. Horace T. Clothier, a prosperous young farmer of Rich Neck, and Miss Mary Virginia Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Porter, of near town. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. H. Derrickson, pastor of the Church.

The bride was becomingly attired in white satin with veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss May Porter, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of pink satin.

Mr. Archie Clothier, brother of the groom was best man. The ushers were: Mr. Clyde Porter, brother of the bride; Messrs. Thomas E Walls and Elmer Anderson, of Church Hill, and Mr. Randolph Waddell, of Chestertown.

Miss Myrtle Derrickson presided at the organ and rendered sweet music during the ceremony.

A dinner was served at the home of the bride, after which the bride and groom left for a wedding trip North.

GALENA ITEMS.

Mrs. Noble Dixon, of near Earlville, with her little daughter, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holding.

Mr. Chas. Wallis, of near Massey, has removed to the Wilson Point, with Mr. Woodburn, where he will occupy the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Olie Ford, who have moved to the Frazier's Hill farm.

Misses Anna Smith, of New York, and Mary Smith, of Betterton, spent the holidays at the home of their mother, Mrs. M. E. Smith.

Even the bad weather and holidays cannot stay the improvement fever in town. Miss Mary Ellen Lynch has had her cozy little home all repainted on the inside, while Mrs. Eva McCauley has had her little home plastered and generally improved. The property on Main street belonging to Mr. Frank Ruth and tenanted by Mr. Wm. Holding and family is also receiving careful repairs.

Gertrude Estner, the tiny daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving L. Dempsey, has been quite ill but is slightly improved at this writing. Others on the sick list are Mrs. Wm. Wood, Mrs. A. E. Ireland, Miss Pearl Ford, Mrs. H. S. Dempsey and Mr. Samuel Smith. We are glad to report that all are improving.

Dr. Paul Smith and little son, "Billy" visited his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Smith Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Mrs. L. Knotts is visiting relatives in Ridgely, Md.

Messrs. Alfred and Samuel Smith, of Wilmington, are spending the holidays at home with their parents.

The sermon of last Sunday morning at Olivet M. E. Church by Rev. Alfred Smith, D. D., from the text "Am I My Brother's Keeper," was one that must make a lasting impression on all persons present. Many of our young people will stop and consider just what their influence means as they never have before perhaps.

Reports for Sunday School work for the year 1912, show an increase in interest along all lines of the work.

FIND ALMSHOUSE COSTLY

Caroline Auditors Criticise Management of County Affairs.

The management of Caroline county's fiscal affairs is sharply criticised in some particulars in the report of the county auditing board, which has just been issued in printed form for distribution among the taxpayers.

The auditors express the opinion that, in view of the more than $5,000,000 in the county's taxable basis by the recent reassessment, the decrease in the net indebtedness of the county "does not seem to be proportionate," and regarding the management of the county farm the report says:

"The financial administration of the county's interests at the almshouse has apparently drifted backward, closely approaching that period memorable to the taxpayers when the per capita cost of maintaining the inmates almost equaled hotel rates."

An increase of $1.67 in the per capita cost of public education in the county is also noted, and the heavy cost of road repair and maintenance is alluded to. The auditors state, however, that 'the heavy rainfall during March caused unavoidable repair work" to roads and bridges, which "accounts for the larger part of the increase in the levy for roads."

The auditors criticise "the rather deliberate State Roads Commission" for its delay in reimbursing the county for expenditures in connection with the building of the Greensboro State road.

Total liabilities of the county in bonds and notes outstanding at the end of the last fiscal year, as found in the report, amounted to a little over $76,000, with resources of nearly $30,000 to be deducted. From all sources the County Treasurer received during the year $171,442 91, the county tax yielding a little less than $105,000. Nearly $60,000 was spent by the School Board and road engineer, the levy for schools being $36,000.

The auditing board consists of J. W. Kerr and S. E. Douglas, Democrats, and J. Spencer Lapham, Republican.

Retired Georgia Planter's Advice to Kidney Sufferers

Regarding the wonderful curative merits of your Swamp-Root, I cannot say too much. After suffering severely for three years or more with severe pains caused by weak kidneys I was finally induced to try Swamp-Root through a testimonial I read in one of the newspapers. I was in such a condition that I was obliged to arise from my bed six or eight times every night. I purchased a 50 cent bottle and before it was used I felt so much relief that I purchased a one-dollar bottle and by the time this was taken the old pains had left my back and I could sleep the whole night through. I am a retired planter, 70 years of age, and owing to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, I am in the best of health and feel like a boy. I am always glad to recommend Swamp-Root to those who are in need of it.

Sincerely yours,
C. E. USSERY,
Bowersville, Ga.
