also small stores, & medicines.
I do not send a detail of supplies, as you can make it out easily, & according to the state of the market.
You will please send Mr. Dennis dry goods & tobacco, say $1500.00, and we will send $500.00 Greenbacks. This I think will be all that he will need.

The Ex. Com. last friday evening approved of your proposal to return the Golconda to Boston.
They also said insure her for its $15.000 — & the Cargo at half cost.

You know we a "hard up" for money — & that here we cannot borrow as we could when by law only 6 % int. could be taken. Now they want ten. Therefore we must pay as little cash as possible. We have
