A CYCLONIC WIND STORM!

A High Tide Floods Wharves and Water Street Yards—Roof Blown Off—Waiting Room at Quaker Neck Lifted, Fodder Sheds Blown Down.

A terrific wind storm visited this section on Friday afternoon of last week. Chester river rose to a high degree, but not near so high as in 1892 and 1893 About 30 feet of the roof of the Electric Light Plant was blown off and the wharf covered with water. The beautiful yards of Senator Beck, Wilbur W. Hubbard, B. F. Fleming, Lewin W. Wickes, Eben F. Perkins, Mrs. Carolene Hynson, Jeff. D. Bacchus and others along Water street were covered with water, and in several instances fires in furnaces were drawn to prevent accident. Mr. Wheat, the bridge tender, says he was preparing to move out when the wind changed and the tide receded.

The waiting room and office on Quaker Neck wharf were blown over into the river.

The water was even with the bridge, with the spray sweeping over it in sheets, while the yard of Mr. Skipper's handsome residence, on the Queen Anne shore, was under several feet of water.

The road leading into town from Quaker Neck was under water a hundred yards on each side of Radcliffe bridge, and various other points along this road were overflown.

The B. S. Ford left her moorings at Chestertown in the morning, but Capt. Taylor had little difficulty in taking her over her regular route. They encountered heavy seas, however, when they left Rock Hall and started across the bay, where the salt spray washed her from bow to stern, and there were but few not sick.

Trees, which had stood the blasts of tempests for years, were uprooted, signs were dragged from their fastenings and panes of glass were blown out, about 24 being blown out at the College.

Boats were broken from their moorings and washed away and several fishermen were caught in their shanties fast asleep and marooned until the tide went out.

Fodder ricks and sheds were blown down on the farms and along the bay shore and the tide came up so high as to frighten many. It is, however, remarkable that more damage was not done in such a heavy blow.

Transit of Venus.

The transits of Venus came in pairs, with an interval of eight years between them. A pair occurred in 1761 and 1769 and again in 1874 and 1882. The whole of the twentieth century will pass without another transit. Not until the years 2004 and 2012 will posterity have the opportunity of witnessing it. It was long supposed that transits of Venus over the sun's disk afforded the only accurate method of determining the distance of the sun, but latterly the speed of light has become the more favored method for that purpose.—New York American.

How He Lost His Dog.

"I've lost me mine dachshund," said a German resident of Brooklyn. "Those dog catchers got him."

"Meybe dey have got him by der pound. How did they come to took him?" asked his friend.

"They took him by der yard," replied the loser sadly.—New York Press

Perhaps She Was Skeptical.

"Just my luck."

"What's the matter now?"

"I promised my wife I'd be home at 10 o'clock last night."

"And couldn't make it, I suppose?"

"No; I got in at just 9:45, but she was sound asleep, and I failed to get credit for it."—Detroit Free Press.

The Other Way.

"If I were younger," said the old man, "I believe I might win you for my wife."

"Yes," replied the old beauty, dreamily considering his sixty years, "or, say, fifteen or twenty years older."—Philadelphia Press.

Retired Georgia Planter's Advice to Kidney Sufferers

Regarding the wonderful curative merits of your Swamp-Root, I cannot say too much. After suffering severely for three years or more with severe pains caused by weak kidneys I was finally induced to try Swamp-Root through a testimonial I read in one of the newspapers. I was in such a condition that I was obliged to arise from my bed six or eight times every night. I purchased a 50 cent bottle and before it was used I felt so much relief that I purchased a one-dollar bottle and by the time this was taken the old pains had left my back and I could sleep the whole night through. I am a retired planter, 70 years of age, and owing to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, I am in the best of health and feel like a boy. I am always glad to recommend Swamp-Root to those who are in need of it.

Sincerely yours,
C. E. USSERY,
Bowersville, Ga.

Personally appeared before me, this 8th of September, 1909, C. E. Ussery, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.
