EVANGELIST IN CHESTERTOWN

Interesting Meetings Held in Christ M. P. Church This Week—Every Night Next Week.

Evangelist Lewis Shelhorn began a revival in Christ Methodist Protestant Church Sunday evening, Rev. W. R. Graham, pastor.

The meetings have been well attended and full of interest. A special meeting for the children and young people will be held at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon. At night a special sermon will be delivered to young men; all invited.

Mr. Shelhorn, whose picture appears here, is not a sensationalist, although he has conducted revivals which have been highly sensational because of their wonderful, far-reaching results.

Once during a revival in Monroe county he preached with such effect that a saloon keeper abandoned his business and broke up his barrels and bottles of liquors. Prominent men, hardened criminals, young and old, rich and poor, who have fallen under the spell of his magnetic voice have thrown aside their sinful idols and turned to God.

Mr. Shelhorn has conducted revivals in nearly every state, Canada, Mexico, Cuba, and Porto Rico, and everywhere has had phenominal success. He is a man of quiet manner when met outside of the church, but in the meetings is imbued with a zeal which animates his whole person.

Here is his life's motto, which appears on all his printed stationery:

"I expect to pass through this life but once; if therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do to any human being, let me do it, for I shall not pass this way again."

FISHING—Capt. W. C. A. and Jas. H. Thompson made a good haul of white perch Friday in Chester river.
