Dear Sir

II A 28

Nearly four months ago, – June 24th – I wrote in reference to the desire of Stephen Lunn of Philadelphia to go out as steward of the Golconda. I have never seen him but Mr Sherman speaks of him very highly as the head waiter of the Merchants Hotel, in this city, and in charge recently of 150 waiters at Congress Hall, Cape May. If pleased with Liberia Mr Sherman thinks that Mr Lunn would hereafter emigrate with his family and induce others to accompany him.

Will you go on the Golconda?

EOH Will the vessel sail certainly on Tuesday? It will be awkward to come from Pittsburgh, Providence and elsewhere so early in the week. Would not Wed. or Thursday answer?

With kindest regard for yourself and son, Yours truly Thomas S. Malcom
