Dear Sir

Your letters dated Oct. 15 and Oct 16 are before me; the first received yesterday and the second received to-day. Not hearing from you about the steward I feared that you thought me officious but I had no personal motive in bringing the case before you. Perhaps Yates & Porterfield may have need of his services.

In reference to Mrs Freeman I proposed in my letter to her father, Rev. John Peck, dated Aug. 30, to secure one hundred dollars, by vote of our Board, towards her passage, and requested the names and ages of the children. Having received subsequently the information needed, I wrote to Rev. Wm. McLain DD. Fri. Sec., on the 30th of September saying:—

"I am desirous that Mrs Freeman and her children should go in the Golconda. What will it
