Colonization Office

Esteemed friend

Mrs M. R. Savage desires cabin passage in the Golconda, Nov. 1st, and has handed me this day a draft for one hundred dollars signed by Yates & Porterfield, New York. I have written to Mr Coppinger inquiring whether the money shall be forwarded to him or to you. Mrs Savage would like to occupy the same apartment with Mrs Freeman and her children. She expects a nephew and niece to go as emigrants in accordance with a letter from Mr Coppinger. They are now in New Haven. What is the street and number of the Colonization Office. Can Mrs Savage leave on Monday, 11½ P.M. Oct 31, and thus go direct to the Golconda on Tuesday? Yours truly Thos. S. Malcom.
