My Dear Sir

Yours of the 19th is received. The extent of our knowledge of Mrs. Savage's affairs is this — She is trying to get from Jabez V. Porterfield "One hundred dollars," deposited with them for her passage. We thought at first it was cash — we now infer it was in the shape of an order or something of the kind, from somebody, unknown to us. & when we last heard, "she had not seen them yet." — We urged her to get her rich Aunt to advance the money. We have not heard that she did it — or would do it. We are willing to take her, if she has cargo worth a hundred dollars, & will consign it to Mr. Dennis, to be delivered to her when her passage is paid. We have agreed to take her two nieces & support them — [illegible]
