have the privilege of renewal — but at this distance we cannot say positively that we shall need it. If we should we shall be glad to get it of them, rather than from another Bank, and will inform them time enough before its maturity.

We have given orders on Capt. Clements for passage from Siberia to the U.S. of Mrs. Henry Ryder in the Cabin at $100, or Steerage at $50.00 as she chooses — & for Mr. & Mrs. Philip S. Monroe at $100.00 each in Cabin.

I inclose your letter from Mayor Peabody —

Yours truly
W. McLain
