Newberry S.C. Nov. 1st 1870.

Mr. James Hall, agt.

Dear Sir,

189 II A.28

Referring to yours of 17th August in which you stated that the ship Golconda would probably sail on or about the 1st. Nov. if you could not get the coloured woman Jane Gilman home by that write you might by some other I write to say that I hope you will order her passage back from Liberia or that at any time after she has returned you see proper you will draw on me for $70.—

Yours truly
