My Dear Sir 183.

II A28

Yours of yesterday is received with "agreement" about the Collaterals — which gives me understanding of the reason the Bank did not like my note, naming the Collaterals.

I am right glad that you are well enough to be out again. Everybody ought to be this beautiful, lovely weather. Oh how delicious it is! You are a little too much for me this time — sir. I cannot understand the sentence beginning "Mess: Finding "article". So I give it up, supposing it does involve any special obligation or duty for us to attend to.

I answered your telegram today & paid the answer. I mention this for Monday evening I paid one from Mr. George — the propriety of which I doubted supposing he had paid it — I write him today on a little special business said to be much obliged for any assistance you can render.

Yours W. McCALL

James Hall Esq. Balt.

Smoke the Sample Mouth you send!
