Misses Anna and Margaret Tucker of Chestertown, left Monday for Baltimore to attend the Spring millinery opening in that city.

We are glad to report Mr. William T. Edwards much improved.

The following item is from Monday's Davenport, Iowa, Democrat:

A charmingly appointed tea of this afternoon was that given by Mrs. Charles W. Boggs and Mrs. David H. McKee at the Davenport Outing club where the ladies had between 70 and 80 tri-city friends as their guests.

Receiving with the hostesses was Mrs. James B. Easton of Wateloo, Ia., the sister of Mrs. McKee. The south parlor was used as a reception room, a large wicker basket filled with pink Killarney roses, its high handle tied with pink tulle bows, ornamented the table, while the mantle formed an effective background for the receiving party, festooned with a profusion of the wild southern smilax.

Mrs Boggs was in a black spangled net with white lace; Mrs. McKee wore a gown of black charmeus with lace and Mrs. Easton was in white crepe de chien with black chantilly lace and touches of pink in the trimming.

It was a pink tea the declicate rose shades prevailing in all the daluty appointments, baskets of pink tulips being used in the library and on the dining room tables, while details of decoration were in the pink Killarney rose color.

Mrs. Boggs is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jefferson, of Chestertown.

TAMPA, FLA., Feb. 5, 1912.

To MR. F. G. USILTON—

Dear Friend: The weather here is fine, just enough rain to make it pleasant. We have been over to St. Petersburg, and the Matthews are doing nicely. Mrs. Matthews has a nice cottage in front of the bay; nice, large yard, with strawberries and rose[illegible] She had sold $35 worth of roses and had plenty more. The city is growin[illegible] faster than any place I ever saw. They claim 6,000 in summer and at this time 10,000 tourists. It is laid out nice, but I like Tampa best. I went to see Mr. Wilson; he has a fine store.

Yesterday was King Caspanella Day, a legal holiday, and the business houses all closed at noon. Caspanella Day is only observed in Florida. Caspanella was a pilot on the sea. He was a Spaniard and had his home on one of the islands in the bay when Florida belonged to Spain. It was a great day and some of the decorations cost $100. The parade was immense. Caspanella came up the bay in his three-master, nicely decorated, with heavy guns, and he was met with heavy firing from the shore. In all it was a big day.

I will now close, with best wishes to all.

JAMES BRICE.

THE Cecilton Junior League will hold a "George Washington Bake" in Anderson's Hall, Feb. 22d, afternoon and evening. All kinds of bread, pies, cakes and ice cream for sale. Also fancy articles. Be sure and come.

THE mercury was down to 14° Thursday morning and farmers were able to get fine ice.

SOME fine report from the lamb yield is heard. Thos. Vandyke has 17 lambs from 10 ewes. Geo. Sutton has 34 lambs from 21 ewes.

THE elegant farm of Mr. W. F. Wink, located on Chester river, has been sold to Mrs. W. F. Hines. This farm contains 87 acres and under Mr. Wink has yielded exceedingly well. It is hoped that Mr. Wink will remain in Kent as he is the kind of citizen this county needs. Mr. Sam'l Emory will tenant the farm next year.

Lonesome Lassie.—The Baltimore American contained the following letter from a Chestertown girl which was sent to the Mayor's secretary;

"It may not sound sensible to apply for a helpmate by correspondence. In fact, a girl friend of mine advised against it. However, I am going to take a chance, as I love mystery. I must say that if I cared to flirt or had gentlemen friends to introduce me in good company I feel assured that I would have plenty of beaux. I am so situated that I have no companions except a girl cousin. I am regarded as decidedly beautiful, in fact, persons stare at me when I pass up the street. I do not say this boastingly, but merely to explain that I am lonesome. I am in just a peculiar position where I am in a way compelled to lead a solitary life I will explain my reasons later."

A bachelor came in the NEWS office with the clipping and states if the lady will make herself known she will not be lonesome long.
