THE YOUNG MAN WHO GOES TO CHURCH.

They smile when he passes and turn around and grin,
They call him a sissy and watch him go in
With snickers of scorn at a taste that they say
Is like throwing half of one's morning away;
But he'll not hear them snicker some day when they see
What going to church for a young man may be,
How it builds up his character, helps him be strong
When he comes face to face with the evil and wrong.

He goes with his mother or sister, perhaps,
And all the way there he is passing the chaps
Who smile o'er their shoulders to see him go by,
And nudge at each other, with winking of eye,
And call him a smarty—but what does he care
If the spirit of worship is luring him there,
And he's learning the lesson of li'e the right way,
How much they snicker or what they may say.

He finds afterwhile the transcendent delight
Of going to church because it is right,
And he feels in his spirit the peace and the spell
Of the prayers that are said and the hymns as they swell
And he grows into manliness week after week
No matter how much his old comrades may tweak
At the thing they call foible—Ah, what's a few grins
When a young man is traveling the life road that wins!

DROPS DEAD IN SUNDAY SCHOOL

Samuel W. Brown Falls While Making Address at Close of the Services —Had Been Suffering From Heart Failure For Some Time— Widow is Prostrated.

With a smile on his lips and apparently in perfect health, Samuel W. Brown, of 1420 North Gilmor street, while addressing the members of the Chatsworth Methodist Episcopal Sunday School Sunday morning, fell to the floor and died in the presence of his friends.

The Sunday school services were about to close when the tragedy occurred. Mr. Brown was admonishing the members to be faithful to their trust, and he had been speaking only a few minutes, when he was seen suddenly to grow pale, pause in the course of his address, place his hand on his heart and slowly sink to the floor in a dying condition. Before the entire Sunday school he passed away.

Several of the older members of the Sunday school ran to his assistance when he fell. Thinking that he had only fainted, they used all possible means to restore him to consciousness, but their efforts proved futile. A messenger was then sent to the office of a physician, but after an examination he said that Mr. Brown's death had been instantaneous. Rev. Robert E. Ziegler, the pastor of the church, was notified, and he, too, hurried to the side of the stricken man, who had been one of his most faithful supporters in carrying on the work of the church.

When it was announced to the members of the Sunday school that their teacher had died several of them became panic-stricken and ran from the church. The others who had grouped around Mr. Brown when he fell, when told that the services would be discontinued for the day, left the church sobbing.

Coroner Macht, of the Northwestern district, after an investigation, gave a verdict that Mr. Brown's death was due to an attack of heart trouble, and that an inquest was unnecessary.

The body was given in charge of an undertaker, and Rev. Mr. Ziegler hurried to the home of the stricken to break the news to his widow. Mrs. Brown, when told of the death, became hysterical and it was necessary to summon a physician for her.

Mr. Brown was 66 years old and was born in this county. He went to Baltimore several years ago, and since his arrival had been a prominent and active member of Chatsworth Church. He had been suffering from heart failure for the last year. He was known to every member of the congregation as a friend who always took a deep interest in their welfare. When speaking about Mr. Brown Rev. Mr. Ziegler said:

"He was not only a very devout man himself, but he was constantly exhorting his friends and acquaintances to lead pure and upright lives. It is impossible for me to speak too highly of him or overestimate his merit and loss to our church."

He is survived by his widow, six sons (Alvin R., Samuel W., Charles H., George M., Frank and Lawrence Brown) and four daughters (Mrs. John G. Lee, Mrs. Wm. Maloney and Misses Alice and Delia C. Brown.) Mr. Brown was a Kent Countian and lived in Quaker Neck for many years, where he was highly esteemed.

The body was brought to Chestertown Tuesday on steamer Ford and interment held Wednesday, in Chester cemetery, after services conducted by Rev. Wm. McCann, of Pomona. The pallbearers W. E. Brown, J. W. Brown, Clark Stoops, Frank Stoops and Wm. Vansant Undertaker Charles L. Dodd. The remains rested in the M. E. Church over night and the services held in the Church the following morning.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear loved one, IDA P. MOFFETT, who departed this life four years ago, February 12, 1909.

Four years ago they laid her
Where the flowers gently wave,
Our dear, kind and loving mother,
In her lonely, silent grave.

Sleep, dear mother, and take your rest;
God took you home—He thought it best,
He saw you suffering here so great,
And opened wide the golden gate.
BY HER CHILDREN ELLA AND VICKERS.

Alone in the silent graveyard,
'Neath the sod and dew,
Never one moment forgotten,
In sorrow we think of you.

Soon the winter storms will be over
And the spring comes fresh and fair;
We will meekly kneel beside you
And plant your chosen flower there.
BY HER FATHER AND MOTHER.

Although she is absent from us
And four weary years have fled,
Since we stood by her bed in sorrow
And knew our dear sister was dead.

But one thought comes to us in our sadness,
She is free from all sickness and pain;
And we trust when our journey is ended
We will meet our dear sister again.
BY HER BROTHERS AND SISTERS.

Don't Look Old Before Your Time

WOMAN'S delicate system requires more than ordinary care and attention—more care and attention than it is given by the average woman.

Neglect it and ills soon creep in, and the look of old age, sometimes quickly, sometimes gradually follows.

That backache, so common among women, brings with it the sunken chest, the headache, tired muscles, crow's-feet, and soon the youthful body is no more youthful in appearance—and all because of lack of attention.

There is no reason why you should be so unfortunate, when you have at your disposal a remedy such as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—recommended for over 40 years as a remedy for ailments peculiar to women. We have thousands upon thousands of testimonials on file—the accumulation of 40 years—testifying to its effectiveness. Neither narcotics nor alcohol are to be found in this famous prescription. Regulates irregularities. Corrects displacements. Overcomes painful periods. Tones up nerves. Brings about perfect health. Sold by dealers in medicines, in liquid or tablet form.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition, answers hosts of delicate questions about which every woman, single or married ought to know.

Every Mother Knows the Value of GOWAN'S King of Externals

She knows that for Croup, Colds, Pneumonia, there is nothing better.

Gowan's is external; it contains no dangerous drugs—it is applied simply by rubbing on—results are marvelous.

Physicians recommend Gowan's, and all who have used Gowan's keep it in the home.

I have been in the retail drug business for twenty-five years, during which time I have sold, as well as used, quite a lot of different medicines. I must say, however, that Gowan's Preparation is the best remedy I have ever used or sold for the use for which it is recommended. I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure to recommend it.

In the above statement charged to the use of pump house is one item of $215.34 which was for material furnished in 1911 but no bill was presented until 1912, deducting this from the amount charged Pump House and we have the sum of $1,756.57 which is the amount actually expended in 1912 for use at Pump House, as all invoices for the year are in.

We have examined the books of the Supt. and Treas. and find that the above is a true statement of the condition of the water department as shown by them.
