may prefer but putting her on dock may involve new metalling & various other expenses amounting to a large amount.

If Dr Hale is to be in B[illegible] in more by 1st May we think it would be better to wait until his return before anything is done with her then he can come here & see for himself.

Do you agree with us on this, he will according to his letter be in Baltimore about one week hence.

Yours truly,
P W T C.
