fair hey, & then sell her if we can, & if we cannot keep till the 1st Nov. & then send her to Liberia with six hundred emigrants — or what shall we do! I wrote you to St. Croix that the only approach to an offer we have had for her was only $8.000. — This morning comes an offer of $10.000. in Florida State Bonds!

I write this to meet you on arrival. I wrote you to St. Croix by the Mail of the 23d which of course you did not receive. I think you will have to go to New York & see the ship & see what can be done with her —

Yours truly
