rate, it seemed proper to Peabody & Co. & to our Ex. Com. that a fair trial should be made to sell her before putting her on block. Our Ex. Com. last night was glad to hear of your safe arrival & good health, & they passed a resolution requesting you to aid us with your counsel & assistance in ship business. And they expressed the opinion that if we could not sell her for a reasonable price, & it was found that she had not been much injured on the shoals should be repaired & made as good as she was when she started on last voyage, at a small expense, and we had the money, we had better keep her & send
