P.S. I think you are safe now — after that bit of extravagance, printing your name at the top left hand corner of the page & putting such a finger pointing to it! But it occurs to us that the name is so near the top that people generally will think it was put there by mistake. Why did you not put in down at the bottom, & thus save you the labor & trouble of signing your name — & why not put your box, or place, or office, or number, & thus save so much to your friends who are more likely to address you on Pilliokoque Hill, than in any other place
