Dr. G. W. S. Hall Esq
Dear Sir Baltimore
Your dispatch at hand
Ky. "Dont delay advertising to write more".

We did not intend to delay the advertising but it cannot be done, or rather ought not to be until after Mr Billou has finished his examination of the Ship, & made his report as the Sale will largely depend upon her Condition, & we think it would be greatly for your interest to know the result of the examination before you commit yourself to any particular mode of selling either by auction or otherwise & if the vessel proved sound. Some of the persons who have already seen her may be induced to buy when satisfied of her soundness

On Wednesday next an Executors Sale of Ships at Auction is to take place
