longing to him to go with him that a sale might be made & we considered this of sufficient importance to telegraph to you as follows. (say G.W. Stall) "We think we can make a Sale of about $7500. You better come on tonight, We can then explain condition of Ship Reply by Wires if you will come." We would much prefer that you or say G.W.S. would come on at once & see for yourself the condition of the vessel, & then you will be on the spot to effect this thing. We think it is for your interest not to let this opportunity go by & we shall do our best to hold on to the man; we have told him you would come, & we hope you won't fail to: its important.
~~Just think~~ that price for the Wheeler is enough to disgust any body, & tells clearly the state of the Market for selling.

Yours truly
Peabody Williams
