STILL POND ITEMS.

Mrs. Wm. Ford and Miss Daisy Ford are visiting Miss Ritta Grey, Brooklyn, A. A. county.

Mrs. Harry Watkins, of Rock Hall, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Carl Norris.

Mr. Baynard Harper, of Newark, and Miss Florence Harper, of Baltimore, are at home for the Easter holiday.

The young men of Still Pond celebrated the "opening" of their Social and Literary Club last Monday night. Their pretty new room was decorated for the occasion and a delightful program arranged. Those taking part in the program were as follows: Mrs. F. X. Moore, Mrs. A. L. Harris, Mrs. John Schofield, Mrs. Wm. Medders, Mrs. Wm. Krusen and Leslie Schofield. Those in the debate were Messrs. Atwood Ricards, John Schofield, John Bennett and Folden Warren. The men served refreshments in a pleasing manner to all present. The club is in a flourishing condition with Mr. Wm. Clark president.

Miss Jennie Bowers, of Savage, and Mr. Holton Parr, of Chestertown, are spending Easter holiday at their respective homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walter and daughter, Anna, are with friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Wm. Thompson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Ford, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, of Baltimore, spent Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Baxter.

Mrs. Kate Megee and Miss Nellie Price have returned home after spending the winter months with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Letherbury, Middletown.

The Social and Literary Club of Still Pond M. E. Church will hold a bible reading at the club room every Sunday afternoon at 2 30. All the young men are cordially invited.

The Still Pond Farmers' Club met at the home of Mr. Wm. B. Price. Although the day was stormy quite a number were present. A very interesting meeting was held. It was decided to get Prof. Besley, our State Forester, to give a lecture on Forestry is Still Pond some time in March and April. Clover seed growing was discussed; then Mr. A. L. Harris and Mrs Cornelius gave a talk about their visit to the Agricultur College. Mr. Harris' talk was on Fruit trees while Mrs. Cornelius told how to raise chickens, etc. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hill, Mr. and Mrs James Harris, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mair, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harris, Mr. and Harry Redding, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Price Mrs. Kate Crew, Mrs. Roeder, Miss Bertha Price, Rev. Mr. Moore, Mr. Samuel Rosebury, Mr. Wm. Bonwill, Mr. Harris Crew, Mr. J. Jarrell, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard.

MR. BRYAN NOT BEHIND MR. MARBURY.

A bomb was thrown into the Marbury Camp when the Straus forces of Baltimore published an interview which completely punctured the bubble that has been floating about the Maryland political arena for more than a week, to the effect that Mr. William Jennings Bryan and the national Administration would support the candidacy of Mr. William L. Marbury for the United States Senate.

Mr. Bryan's own words to a committee, with whom he discussed the situation are:

"I KNOW NOTHING OF ANY STAND TAKEN OR TO BE TAKEN BY THE ADMINISTRATION IN REFERENCE TO THE SENATORIAL PRIMARY IN MARYLAND.

"I CAN ONLY SPEAK FOR MYSELF, AND YOU CAN SAY FOR ME THAT I HAVE NOT BEEN CONSULTED AND AM NOT COMMITTED TO THE CANDIDACY OF ANYONE."

The Baltimore Sun, and, at least one Eastern Shore newspaper, have been endeavoring for some time to have it appear that Mr. Wilson and Mr. Bryan had stated that they would be behind Mr. Marbury. The absolute untruthfulness of these statements was shown up in all its glaring detail by the statement of Mr. Bryan.

We do not believe that the national administration should, or will, go so far as to come to Maryland and explicitly state the name of the candidate they may decide upon. Marylanders should be allowed to choose whom they want for themselves.

WEDDING BELLS

MIDWOOD—USILTON.

St Luke's Methodist Prot. Church, Erie Avenue and Broad street, Philadelphia, was the scene of a recherche affair at noon Wednesday in which Kent Countians played an important part. The occasion was the wedding of DR. MILTON EARLE USILTON, son of Mrs. Fannie Usilton and the late Wm. B. Usilton, of Chestertown, and a well-known physician of Philadelphia, and MISS FLORENCE VIRGINIA MIDWOOD, an attractive and accomplished resident of Philadelphia. The Church was tastily decorated with palms and was filled with interested friends of the couple. The ceremony was impressively performed by Dr. J. W. Trout, the successful pastor, while Miss Clara B. Usilton, sister of the groom, presided at the organ. Mrs. Frank Pope, of Morrisville, Pa., sister of the bride, matron of honor, wore a beautiful pink silk, and carried a large bouquet of pink roses. She was preceded by two pretty little flower girls—Florence Barkman Tomkins and Ethel May Taylor—dressed in white and pink ribbons and carrying baskets of sweet peas. The bride was handsomely gowned in white charmeuse trimmed in lace, entrain, with the bridal vein caught up with lillies of the valley; she carried a large bouquet of white Bride's rosss and Lillies-of-the-Valley. She was accompanied to the altar by her step-father, Mr. George Gedney, and there met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Edward Jones. The ushers were Messrs. Elwood Baker, of Chestertown; Ralph McFeely, of New Jersey; Milbourn Davis and Dr. Benjamin, of Philadelphia.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridal couple which was largely attended. Caterer McAllister served a splendid course dinner while an orchestra rendered sweet music. The presents were a sight to behold, there being over a hundred pieces of cut glass besides a chest of silver, pictures, spoons, knives, etc., etc. The groom's present to the bride was silver for her bureau and a handsome victrola for parlor. Favors were given the attendants, viz., bracelets for the little girls, signet ring for the best man and stick pins for the ushers.

LONG—FOREST.

Wilkens Avenue Methodist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on March 12th, when Mrs. Rohnia Forest, daughter of Mrs. Mattie B. Forest, of 1650 Wilkins Ave., Baltimore, became the bride of George B. Long, of Rocky Mount, N. C. The bride looking very sweet, came in on the arm of her brother, and was given by him to the groom a prosperous business man of the South. The bride was attired in a handsome traveling suit of Copenhagen blue and carried a large arm bouquet of lillies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Helen Albiker who carried sweet peas and orchids. After a large reception at the home of the bride's mother they left for an extensive wedding trip through the South, going as far as Cuba and spending some time in Florida. The bride received numerous and beautiful presents of cut glass and silver, also linen and china. Many out of town guests were present. Among them being, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Long, father and mother of the groom, Mrs. Chas. Forest, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kiffmeyer, of Newark, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ashly and daughter, of Rock Hall, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spye, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Holdson, of Atlantic City, N. J.; Mrs. Geo. Beaumont, of Sumter, S. C.; Robert B. Holdson, of Philadelphia; all aunts and uncles of the bride. The couple will reside after April 1st, in Rocky Point, N. C.

COPPER—BUTTON.

In Highland Methodist Episcopal Church, the scene of their first meeting over eight years ago, William C. Copper, 62 y ars old, a former Kent countian, was married Thursday night to Mrs. Anna L. Button, one year his junior, a native of the Emerald Isle. The groom is president of the official board and also a member of the board of trustees of Highland Church, while his bride is president of the Ladies' Aid Society.

On Friday afternoon, February 21st, the engagement of Miss Ethel A. Johnson and Walter W. Derr was announced at an informal reception given by Mrs. G. H. Mann at her residence on Hillside avenue. The announcement was made to the score of friends who were invited, when a wreath of beautiful Bride's roses was placed on the head of the bride-to-be by Mrs. Mary Bates McClellan, and a bridal bouquet of white roses, for-get-me-nots and white violets, the gift of the groom, presented to her. From a large bouquet in the form of a basket, each guest was then presented with a dainty bunch of white roses, at the end of which were suspended hearts bearing the initials of the happy couple, the gift of the groom-to-be. Miss Johnson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson of Madrona street, and her fiance, Mr. Derr, comes from Baltimore, Maryland. He is an attorney-at-law in San Francisco and represents the American Bonding Company there. Although no date has been set for the wedding, it is expected to take place some time in the early summer. They will make Mill Valley their future home.—From the Mill Valley, Cal., newspaper.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Hurrah for W. J. B. who declares to have no lot nor part in the Senatorial contest in Maryland. Now let the chief make the same declaration and lots of the people will love him the more.

A ripple of excitement had the right of way here Saturday evening when a message was received that a colored man had assaulted Mr. C. L Miller in his home at Gratitude. Officer Culley grabbed the fellow and escorted him to Judge Ashley who did the rest. The fellow was a non-resident who was hired as a deck hand on Capt. Carter's vessel the day before.

Mr. John Ayres of the city has been the guest of his mother.

Patrolman C. H. Davis of the city police force spent a few days here with his parents.

The Shellfish Commission and the Hamanites are in great glee because of the large increase of oyster bottom leases. They and Bro. Anderson have a big job on their hands in the selection of the next Legislature. Report comes from the city that packers and oyster cullerists are planning for next season's oyster crop to be procured from the oyster farmers only, the natural bar workers will not be in it. Guess this is only report with no foundation of fact.

Our old friend Buck Jones is not doing the right thing in distributing shells on the road between town and Grey's Inn. Filling a few holes is not sufficient. Don't know if it's Buck's fault. Almost the whole length of said road need shelling just as done about Green Lane. Come Buck, let's have the shells.

Some folks seem to be looking for trouble by having front gates wide open and swing out on the road.

GRANGE NOTES.

At a meeting of the Kennedyville Grange on Monday evening after transacting matters of business, an interesting paper was read by Mr. Charles Clendaniel, bearing upon the short term farm course which he had recently taken at the Md. Agricultural College. A question box was then held.

The meeting next Monday evening will begin at 7 o'clock to permit the conferring of first and second degrees upon candidates. The new flag recently acquired by our order will be formally presented to the Grange. Mrs. Harry J. Williams of the Still Pond Grange will give a talk upon poultry.

BUIGK SHOW ROOM.

Under the diligent supervision of E. McNeal Shannahan, the storeroom until recently occupied by the firm of Gompecht & Benesch, Easton, has been made over and is now used for the purpose of a display room for their extensive line of Buick automobiles by the Shanahan & Wrightson Hardware Company. Messrs. Graham, Clements & Sutton handle this excellent machine in Kent.

The room is large enough for the display of twenty-five cars and already the front of the room is occupied by a number of the present Buick models.

The large gallery at the end of the hall, which is reached by a stairway from the display room, will be used by the company for an office, where the automobile business of the firm will be conducted.

The room is lighted by electricity and decorated attractively.

The fine weather of this week has got the farmers hereabout in a hustle. Grafton has (?) taken Milt back and they are now hustling for first crop record. Tommie will soon join them.

The Spring Presents the Best Time to Buy Your Home or an Investment in Land.

I have 30 Valuable Farms in Kent alone, which can be bought at prices that will make these propositions superior to anything in which you could invest for a sure, steady investment.

These farms are for sale—not put up because they are worthless—but because the owners, for reasons of health, or too much land to till, or wanting a smaller farm, or too much in debt, are in a measure compelled to sell.

The list I can submit to you is the result of careful investigation, and contains tracts of land that will prove a profitable investment for your Funds.

The proportion of wise investments is greater in Real Estate than in any other line of investment.

Spring Millinery Ready For You

THE burning question of the moment is: Where shall I get my New Hat? The question is a burning one because Easter is almost upon us. The place to purchase is important in that both you and we are vitally interested. We have tried our best to do our part by giving the Millinery Parlors the most prominent part of our store and by placing therein for your convenience and selection the best and largest display of fine Millinery ever attempted to be shown in Chestertown. New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore's best houses have contributed to this gorgeous array. Will you not visit us and test these statements?

Humidor Linens

SOME people go so far as to judge the general tone of a housewife's tastes by the kind of Linens she uses in the home. If you wish to have splendid judgment passed upon you use HUMIDOR LINEN, Strawbridge & Clothier's Brand and sold exclusively at this store. When the stamp "Humidor Linen" appears you will know it is pure linen, whether it be Table Linen, Napkins, Towels, Toweling, Crashes or any kind of Dress Linen. Exclusive patterns—guaranteed wear.

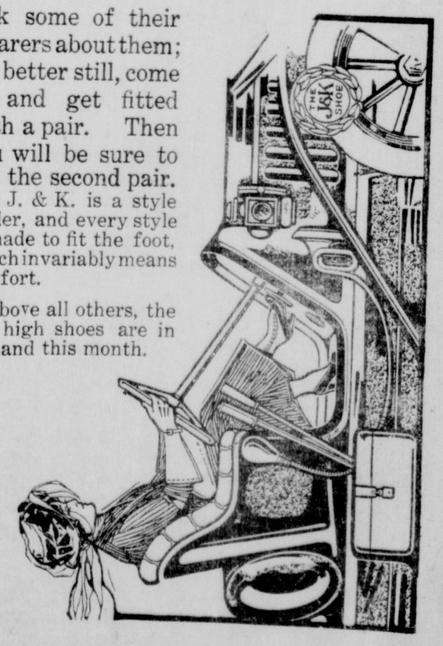

Shoes That Are In Demand

THE J. & K. Shoes are making friends all the while, and "There's a Reason."

Ask some of their wearers about them; or, better still, come in and get fitted with a pair. Then you will be sure to get the second pair. The J. & K. is a style leader, and every style is made to fit the foot, which invariably means comfort.

Above all others, the tan high shoes are in demand this month.
