New-York, June 13th 1871

G. W. D. Hall Esq.
Second St.
Baltimore

Dear Sir. We have your favors of the 9th and 10th inst, and now inclose memo. of Sale of the "Thomas".

We are urging Johnson & Higgins to complete the adjustment as soon as possible.

Please send us a Bill of Sale duly executed leaving blank the names of the Purchasers, and a certificate from the Collector of Baltimore, where we presume the ship is registered, stating that she is free from liens &c.

The ship remains as she was when sold, with the same ship keeper who will remain by her until the papers are passed.

Yours very truly,
Peabody, Willis & Co.
