You do us the favor to ask them if they will renew it? If they will get the Coupons, sell them, pay the interest, & the stamps & remit us the balance.

I tell you the sky looks dark between this & Nov. 1. We have received from one Company of 163 people $81.50 to insure their passage "in the first ship." If they had the money to pay their passage they would do it in a minute, so cross are they. Never have I seen such hard work to raise money. And now the report of new troubles in Liberia will make it worse. And if Prof. Blyden comes to this Country, it will not help us any. Do you believe "there is tide in the &c."? & if it is true where are we just now? — Ex. xxx: 2.

The Rust. of the A.C.S. has lately had one of the most elegant calls to write a telling paragraph for the papers. A Company of 40 heads of families
