State of anxiety about the winding up of the Golconda, & our fall Expedition, & how & where from to get the money for it. You will not therefore think strange that we overlooked that note due the Md. S. C. Soc. the 1st inst. in payment of which I now inclose you Bk. of Washington Check for $224.36. I suppose that we shall soon have full & final statement of the [illegible] adjustment, the sale of the Ship & how much it all amounts to &c. I cannot make you understand how anxious we are to know what the Md. Soc. will do with us, & how earnestly we hope they will come to the conclusion that the Amt. they put into the W. C. Stevens has been well used up by her & by the Golconda, and that we have therewith sent more people to, & done more to build up Cape Palmas, than we shall to
