"Sequently I have not been able to
"get from him the particulars of the
"transaction". (Aug 2d)

Touching a matter to which I alluded in my last, "What will be done with the proceeds of the sale of the Colconda", I am disposed to make two propositions, (if the Md. Col. Soc. will not conclude that the money they put into the W. C. Stevens has done a work as great in benevolence & as good for Cape Palmas as it would have done if they had furnished emigrants enough to use it up as by the original proposal,) viz. We have a company of about 100 people of first rate character in Yorkville S. C. that we will send to Cape Palmas this fall, if the Md. Soc. will ap-
