SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 1913.

DON'T forget to vote in the town election.

THERE is no need for an extra session of Legislature, according to high legal authorities, in order to elect a Senator to succeed Senator Jackson.

G. E. NOLAND, ESQ., is an ardent Straus advocate and was misrepresented at the Marbury meeting. But, then, we should not forget, the writer on the Barroll organ simply can't help it!

THE citizens of Belgium went on a strike for suffrage and won. Suppose the women of America should "strike" for suffrage. It would come just as quickly as it did in Belgium, don't you think?

AN effort is being made to raise sufficient money on High street to resurface and oil the splendid piece of road built last year by our faithful Board of Commissioners. It will require $800.

SENATOR JACKSON of Maryland, will not be a candidate for the short term against State Senator Blair Lee or whomever the Democrats may nominate. The junior Senator may come out for the long term, but even that is a question which he will settle later on. His mind is still open on that point.

THE Grand Jury did faithful service and bad as its foreman, Mr. T. S. Bordley, one of Kent's most intelligent and patriotic citizens. Their recommendations noted in another column deserve consideration and action.

THE Court again advised better and more stringent laws for the enforcement of local option laws. It is hoped that Kent's citizens will see that men are sent to the Legislature who will carry out the Court's instructions.

THE County Commissioners of Allegany county have signed the levy which calls for $321,464 50, of which $125,738 80 is set apart for schools, an increase of $10,000, and $1,000 is levied for tuberculosis purposes. The rate is 80 cents on the $100, a decrease of 10½ cents.

ANNOUNCEMENT has been made of the courses of study of the third season of the Johns Hopkins University Summer School, which will be held for six weeks in July and August, under the direction of Dr. E. F. Buchner. Special provision will be made for instruction of teachers in handling one-teacher rural schools, and a demonstration school will be in operation during the session. Teachers who wish to increase their efficiency should consider the opportunities offered by this Summer School.

CANDIDATE FOR LEGISLATURE.

The many friends of MR ROBERT A. SHALLCROSS, of Rock Hall, will be glad to hear that he has consented to be a candidate for the Legislature on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Shallcross is a Democrat and comes from Democratic stock; he is a young man and will be anxious to do what is right. He was born on the farm and knows the needs of farmers; he has lived at Rock Hall eight years and knows what the watermen want. We bespeak for him the consideration of every Democrat in Kent county.

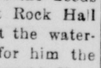

SIMPLY CAN'T HELP IT.

The Kent News was among the many who proved their disloyalty to the Democratic ticket in 1895, and the Kent News not only assisted in electing a Republican Governor, but that paper was absolutely responsible for the defeat of the County Democrat ticket in 1895, as well as in intervening years to 1903.—Barroll organ April 19, 1913.

NEVER HAS THERE BEEN A MORE DELIBERATE NOR A MORE WILFUL FALSEHOOD PUT IN PRINT THAN THAT CONTAINED IN THE ABOVE.

The KENT NEWS files of these years were in the office of the Barroll organ and yet Mr. Bowers, who was out of the county during these years, preferred to take the order from the Boss rather than find out the truth for himself. To name the ticket nominated in 1895 which contains the names of Hon. Marion deK. Smith, Hon. Jas. A. Pearce, Philip G. Wilmer, John P. Nicholson, Wm. M. Slay, Esq., S. F. Cooper, Samuel Burgess, Samuel Todd, Bedford Roe, Jas. W. Ivens, George W. Hatcherson, Chas. C. Strong, J. M. J. Byron, R. F. Moffett and John E. Hurst is enough to prove the falsehood of the statement but the files of the NEWS which are in the Barroll organ's office show the NEWS' incessant and enthusiastic fight for Democratic tickets, and for Democratic victories, local and State! But, we look charitably upon the writer when we are reminded that "He can't help it."

MARBURY A REPUBLICAN.

MESSRS. EDITORS KENT NEWS:

Mr. Wm. Marbury has just completed a tour of Kent county and bestowed the tender grace of his presence upon the people thereof in an effort to persuade them that the only hope for the Democratic party is to elect him to the U. S. Senate and the dire consequence to the State of Maryland, the country in general and the administration of President Wilson in particular, that would follow the return of J. Walter Smith, the present incumbent, to that body.

I have not seen nor heard him but from a full report of his savings I gather his efforts were directed, not so much to prove his OWN competency and worth, but his lamentations and wail of woe were poured forth in portrayal of the awful calamity that would follow the re-election of Senator Smith, for in a speech at Centreville March 18th he said that nothing is better calculated to produce hopeless discord in the party councils than to elect "Senators whose political records show that they have been affiliated with Republicans and the reactionary element in the Democratic party upon the great party issues of the day."

Now let us apply this acid test of regularity to both Smith and Marbury.

Which one has more often "affiliated with the Republicans?" Mr. Smith has declared that for forty years he has worked and voted for the Democratic party and voted for Bryan three times. Some measure of belief must be accorded this statement. But just here we find our belief wavering for the Transcript says he did not vote for Bryan (and we all know that nothing but the truth (?) and the whole truth, conviction-compelling truth, truth with a big "T" ever emanates from the editorial sanctum of the Transcript.)

Even Mr. Marbury says in this connection "that the vast majority of Democrats in the Eastern States, including Senator Smith were hostile to Mr Bryan."

Whom are we to believe? Mr. Smith (who should surely know how he himself voted) or Mr. Marbury and the Transcript, whose keen penetration and well-known love of truth have lain bare the subterfuges of Senator Smith and held him up to scorn?

But assuming that Senator Smith did not vote for Bryan did he vote for McKinley? Nor does Mr. Marbury in any of his speeches, while admitting he did not support Bryan at any time, acknowledge he (Marbury) voted for McKinley. Did he? Just here may be applied the test of regularity.

The written word of a man of standing must be accepted. "I DID VOTE FOR McKINLEY IN 1896 AND IN 1900. My reason for so doing have been fully stated in a speech which I delivered at Centreville on the eighteenth of March," writes Mr. Marbury.

A careful perusal of that speech fails to disclose these reasons and in no speech and upon no occasion, that I can recall, has Mr. Marbury ever stated that he supported McKinley. He did not vote for Bryan in 1908 because of finding it convenient to be absent in Texas at election time.

The time had not yet quite arrived for Bryan to come along and, finding the people asleep, to arouse them to their danger. And by a strange coincidence at the same time this "Great Arouser From Sleep" came upon the scene, Mr. Marbury also conceived the idea of saving the administration by becoming, at President Wilson's suggestion, its chief supporter.

At that psychological moment the light of Bryan's greatness burst upon him.

Mr. Marbury charges Senator Smith with being a Republican. Senator Smith avows he has always voted the Democratic ticket and supported its measures as an Mr. Marbury say the same?

Marbury has consistently and insistently supported the Republican party the party that has lived, moved and had its being by protection and high tariff.

He voted twice for McKinley, that Apostle of high protection, and father of the tariff bill bearing his name.

When one gives his support to a party it is because he approves of its tenets and of the measures it advocates.

Therefore if Mr. Marbury gave his support to the Republican party in two National campaigns he did so knowing that a high tariff would be forthcoming and the heavy burdens, already born by the people, would be in no way lightened but rather increased; and by aiding and abetting the Republican party he openly acknowledges himself an advocate of protection and a high tariff and thus assist in bringing about that condition where "behind" the impregnable bulwarks of the tariff they were able to form those tremendous industrial combinations which we have come to know by the name of "trusts" and to extort from the American people such prices as they choose to dictate for everything they had to sell, including many of the absolute necessities of life."

To be sure these things were done by Mr. Marbury some time ago. He knew not Bryan then as the "Arouser of Sleepers." The Republican party was the strongest party and likely to continue in power for sometime. When the country became aroused or awakened from the sleep to the necessity for a change.

Mr. Marbury being a man with far seeing vision, adapting himself to the changing conditions, held the greatness of Bryan and his ability to arouse the sleepers. He became a Democrat.

Senator Smith's continuance in office became repugnant to all who labored for the stability of the Wilson administration and more especially repugnant to Mr. Marbury who wanted his place. Therefore according to the acid test of regularity if Mr. Marbury is a Democrat his democracy is of a strange and inconsistent kind and per contra, if Senator Smith is a Republican give us more of the same character.

I appeal to the Democratic voters of Kent Co., not to turn down a sure and tried servant such as Senator Smith has proven himself to be, and one alive to the best interests of his party and State and a life-long, consistent Democrat for one who Claims to be a Democrat but is one only in spots and as convenience suggests.

I offer no excuse for Senator Smith's apparent transgression nor will I attempt to palliate any offence he may have committed politically but will refer to a little anecdote in the career of Henry Clay who, when an old hunter refused to support him asked if he would throw away his rifle if it should miss fire once and the reply of the old hunter was "No" I would pick the flint and try again."

The moral of the tale is applicable in this case. Mr. Marbury claims he is entitled to be elected because the Hon. Pinkney White and Isadore Raynor each was made Atty. Gen'l of Maryland and U. S. Senator after having opposed and taken the stump against Bryan. So they did, and so also did Mr. Marbury.

But neither of the former two supported McKinley and the high protective measures of the Republican party, as did Marbury.

Yours Truly,
DEMOCRAT.
