Colonization Rooms,
Washington, D.C. 14, Sep. 1871

My Dear Sir

Yours of the 13th in answer to mine of the 2nd ult. is received, & it gratifies us exceedingly to learn that we may hope to be favored with a loan of the proceeds of the Sale of the Ship Golconda, in our present emergency, when the offers for emigration are so numerous, & the means for accomplishing the same so limited. The delay in your response to mine as above however will, I fear, prevent our being able to do what I then proposed, viz. dispatch our expedition now being got ready to Cape Palmas.
