of yours, our Cor. Sec. Mr. Coppinger left for the South with instructions to make the best selection he could without regard to the port of destination, & we had made our contract for transportation to cover but one port. I fear therefore that Mr. Coppinger may make arrangements with some of the parties to go to the St. Pauls, where very likely they have friends, which they may wish to gain. On the receipt of yours of the 15th I advised Mr. Coppinger of the circumstances & desired him if possible to arrange only for Engkr. to Cape Palmas. Should he be able to do so, my propositions will be held good — if not, the best we can do will be to put the thing in nearly the same condition as in our original contract with the Md. Soc. binding the Am. Col. Soc. to
