My Dear Sir

Yours of the 28th came duly, & I took the Mortgage to the Office for Record, paid $1.75 for recording it, & had leave granted me to call for it in about one month as the records of the Office were greatly behind hand because the Govt. would not allow Clerks enough to keep the work up! I had previously stamped the Mort. with $7.50 internal Rev. & paid the Comr. of Deeds for the State of Maryland $1.00 for his Seal. As you are probably be out of the Country when I get the Mort. again, what shall I do with it?
