SONG OF THE MEN MEN HATE.

BY THE BENTZTOWN BARD.

They hate us because we have seen through the lie
Of the lives they live and the things they do;
They hate us because we have told the truth
And theirs is the sin that they now must rue.
They hate us because we have found them out
And held them up to the merciless light;
They hate us because we have taken the sword
In the public service for sake of right.
Oh, we are the men men hate,
That they hound and curse in their lair;
But the Lord God saves us from our enemies
And we shall fight on and not care!

They hate us because we have come along
When their plans were ripened and laid full well,
And have found them out and have gone ahead
To alarm the people, to publish and tell.
They hate us because we are on the tower
Watching each move of their errant trick,
And holding them up as we would a snake,
On the lofty end of a sharpened stick.
They hate us because when they're in a trap,
And they wriggle and scream and shout,
We stand by the latches until they are scotched
And we will not let them get out
Oh, we are the men men hate,
That they slander and vilify;
But the Lord God listens alone to truth,
And let us be right or die!

They hate us because they cannot go on
With the game they have fashioned to play;
They hate us because with the searching light
Of the truth we stand in their way.
They hate us because we are vigilant men
In the trust that we've ta'en to do,
And wherever the Lord says lay the sword
It is there that we strike and hew.
Oh, we are the men men hate,
As the wicked have always done
Since the Lord God came in the thunder-flame
And the light was born in the sun!

At midnight last Wednesday approximately 160 Baltimore liquor bars closed permanently because of the refusal of the license board to renew their licenses. The weeding out process began several weeks ago, with the applications for renewals for 12 months beginning Thursday. Taking the stand that there were too many saloons in the city, the board began a crusade of elimination which touched every section of the city containing drinking resorts. We are glad to note that J. Henry Baker, Esq., had a great deal to do with this action.

SIMPLY CAN'T HELP IT.

Mr. Thos D. Bowers in his last Barroll organ publishes the following:

Mr. Fred G. Usilton, writer on the KENT NEWS, published the following editorial in his paper last Saturday:

G. E. Noland, Esq., is an ardent Straus advocate and was misrepresented at the Marbury meeting. But, then, we should not forget, the writer on the Barroll organ simply can't help it!

In answer to an inquiry from us relative to the above statement, Mr. G. E. Noland very willingly and courteously forwarded us the following reply:

TOWCHESTER, 4. 28, '13.

MR. THOMAS BOWERS—DEAR SIR:—in answer to your inquiry over the phone this morning I am only too glad to repeat what I said to you over the phone on the morning of the Marbury meeting in Chestertown, namely, that I did indorse the Marbury meeting in the county, and felt it my duty as chairman of the State Central Committee to preside, and would gladly have done so, but was just recovering from a case of grippe, and I did not think it prudent to drive to Chestertown over the roads as bad as they were in the rain, and I did ask you to go on with the meeting, and to extend to Mr. Marbury my regrets at not being able to attend, and to assure him and those present that I fully indorsed the meeting, and his campaign as a Democrat, and as chairman of the State Central Committee I could and would do nothing less. I am sorry to have caused this contention or that you have been misrepresented.

Respectfully,
GEORGE E. NOLAND.

If Mr. Bowers or any reader can find in the above letter of Mr. Noland's where he says he will VOTE for Marbury we will ask Mr. Bowers' apology for charging him with misrepresenting in this instance. Mr. Noland in the above says he felt it his duty as Chairman of the State Central Committee to preside at the meeting, just like he would preside at a John Walter Smith or a Blair Lee meeting, but does he say he is going to support Marbury? No. He says he indorsed the MEETING, not Marbury. How could he, when he has campaigned with Straus and asked his friends to support Straus and even last week while at Court assured his friends of his loyal support of Straus.

But why speak more of the Barroll organ's writer when we are reminded of this fact—he simply can't help it.

50,000 Fourth Class Postmasters Must Pass Examinations.

Washington, May 7.—All fourth-class postmasterships, except those paying less than $180 a year, were thrown open to competitive examinations by an executive order issued to-day by President Wilson. These positions are retained in the classified service, but about 50,000 incumbents who were "covered" into the classified service by executive orders of previous administrations will have to meet all comers in competitive examinations in order to hold their positions with civil service protection.

This order will affect about eight postmasters in Kent county.

In a statement making this order public, Postmaster General Burleson announced that it was the purpose of President Wilson and himself to extend the classified service to include presidential postmasters of the second and third classes probably within a year. This may require legislation by Congress, he said. His plan, which will be laid before the President soon, would provide for a qualification test for incumbents and applicants "in keeping with the importance of the office."

This extension of the orde, will affect Chestertown, which is a second class office, and Millington, which is third class.

Under President Taft's order of October 15, 1912, fourth class postmasters were divided into two classes—Class A, those drawing more than $500, and Class B, those drawing less than $500. Competitive examinations were prescribed for future applications for Class A appointments, while the Class B positions were to be filled upon recommendation of postoffice inspectors. To-day's order leaves the offices paying $180 or less to be filled upon inspectors' reports.

The postal records show that there are now 837 fourth-class postoffices in the State. There are 63 offices in the first, second and third grades, making a total of exactly 900, not including the substations in Baltimore city. There are more than 100 of these substations.

THE Town Commissioners have named next week as "clean-up week." There is nothing which pays a bigger dividend to a community than cleanliness. Then whitewash your cellar walls, use extreme care in burning rubbish, join in the spirit of the day, vie with your neighbors in the excellence of your efforts.

CANDIDATE FOR LEGISLATURE

After insistent demands from farmers, watermen and businessmen, MR HOWARD TURNER, of Betterton, has consented to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the House of Delegates. He is the calibre of a man which Kent should always have at Annapolis. He has industry combined with good judgment, energy with discretion and has helped to make Kent county what it is today. In his dealings with others he is characterized by honesty and veracity while in the conduct of his business he is energetic, progressive and discriminating. Mr. Turner should receive the hearty support of every citizen without regard to faction and the NEWS takes pleasure in heartily endorsing his candidacy.

Encouraging For The Farmer.

Not much danger need be justly feared by American farmers over lessened protection for potatoes, and in general, most farm products. Not much relief can be expected by consumers except in times of considerable local shortages, as in the failure of the potato crop some years ago. The simple truth is that the law of supply and demand is international in effect and will generally override tariff conditions except in abnormal years. The comparative scarcity of farm produce will be almost certain to keep prices profitably high, and any danger that may be feared can resonably be expected to be offset by reductions on manufactured articles farmers use.—Newark News.

THE Democrats of Maryland want the party to redeem every pledge that it made to the people in the last Democratic campaign. They also want the principles of the Democratic party to be carried out in full. Throughout Maryland there is a widespread sentiment in favor of the Underwood Tariff bills. These bills are designed to relieve and help the poor and middle classes by greatly reducing the cost of living. The companion measure to the tariff schedule, the Income Tax, is a popular measure with Maryland Democrats, for it does not work a hardship upon the people of means. These two measures, which go hand in hand, aim to reduce the cost of living while at the same time to provide revenue for the maintenance and conduct of the government. During the past the government has been conducted largely by money collected by the tariff. Now it is proposed to raise a very large portion of this money by the direct tax on incomes of persons who receive $4,000 or more a year. The fight on the tariff schedules and income tax has just begun. It is expected that it will take a month or more to pass the tariff bill.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Tomorrow (Sunday) Mother's Day will be observed at the M. E. Church.

The local service following the Sunday school session for more than 40 years has been transfered to Friday evening during the warm weather season. This is owing to the fact that so many of the young folks have dropped off regular attendance because of warm weather, inconvenience, etc. If circumstances must play a leading part in our religion, hadn't we best take another dip by "going down and getting through?" "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good." Perhaps this transfer of the local service will give a longer Sunday school session which is much needed by the bible classes.

The municipal election here on Saturday was a tame event. About 42 votes were cast, ten names were on the ticket. The result showed the following choice: Messrs Jos. Downey, W. I. Ashley, Fred Williams, R. A. Shalleross and C. F. Wheatley as the town council for the ensuing year.

A new Camp of the Patriotic Order of Americans was instituted here on Monday evening by National Secretary Geo. W. Smith, of Phillipsburg, N. J.

On Tuesday evening of last week one of the happiest social events of the season took place at the home of ex-sheriff and Mrs. J. A. Casey in honor of the 67th birthday of the host and the 5th anniversary of the marriage of Rev. and Mrs. D. J. Moore. Relatives and friends did honor to the occasion in happy vein. An abundance of refreshments was served.

Our genial insurance agent, Robert A. Shallcross is meeting with enthusiastic support in his campaign for votes for delegate to the Legislature. In one of the nearby sections there are 40 democratic voters and 38 of them are outspoken for Shallcross and all through the District he is making rapid progress. Bob has been visiting our home for the past 8 years once a month, and we found him so quiet that we wondered if he was a success in his business, but that idea has been dispelled by our surprise at his great popularity. W. says if the election was held today Shallcross would carry the district by 120 majority and there is no lye in that soap. Organization and anti-organization democrats and G. O. P.'s are flocking to him.

Mrs. Alexander is the guest of Mrs. Annie Kendall. She is here superintending her business affairs and is well pleased with her success.

Mr. J. A. Casey has secured the services of a first-class baker from the city and has reopened his bakery here. This is pleasing to Mr. Casey's large patronage.

The storke visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Coburn and presented them with a fine 11¼ pound baby boy.

NOTHING CAN BEAT BRYAN IN 1916

If William J. Bryan is a candidate for for the Presidency in 1916 nothing can prevent his election, according to Senator James Martin, e of New Jersey, who was in St. Louis, Mo., attending the dedication of the Jefferson memorial Mr. Martine said the one-term plank in the Democratic platform would prevent President Wilson's nomination

"Bryan will be the logical candidate," he said. "People have come to know and to understand him better. People think that he has become more stable in his views, struck an equilibrium, as it were. The fact is, that Mr. Bryan is just as radical today as he was 20 years ago. but the people have grown up to him."

He also said the tariff fight would keep Congress in session all summer.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

In order that the affairs of the Democratic party in Kent may be in the hands of the voters the party has seen fit to have the members of the State Central Committee elected by the people. For this committee the three men herein named cannot be surpassed—in fitness, in true Democracy and in fidelity to right and justice. The first named is MR. PAUL DUNN, a young farmer of near Massey, a worker in the ranks, intelligent and fair-minded. His father, although 84 yeaes old, is hale and hearty and says he can wrestle anyone of his six big sons, and these dutiful boys do not dispute his claim. Mr. Dunn should be elected by a large vote.

The second is that of MR. GEORGE RICHARD RASIN, of near Kennedyville. He is an active democrat, an intelligent citizen, and a successful farmer. He is deeply interested in the Grange and in all that pertains to the prosperity of the farmer. He is anxious for his party's success and would make a splendid member of the State Central Committee.

The third member is that hustling Bryan Democrat, MR CHARLES L. DODD. He should be unanimously chosen—a man who works day in and day out for his party without regard to faction and who spends his money when his fellow members on the committee refuse to honor orders for conveying voters, etc. Mr. Dodd has executive ability, integrity, intelligence and whose interest in the Democratic party never wavers.

A vote for Dunn, Rasin and Dodd means good management and without dictation from one man.
