Miss Dolly Dainty—"I love James—but he's too poor for us to get married. I'm not strong enough to do washing."

Anty Drudge—"Get married right away if that's all. You're strong enough to wash the Fels-Naptha way. It's easy on the woman; easy on the clothes."

Easy on the woman; easy on the clothes! That is the Fels-Naptha way of washing.

Fels-Naptha Soap does away with all the hard and disagreeable part of washing. Little rubbing, no steaming suds to bend over, no keeping up fire to boil the clothes, no nauseous odor from cooking soiled garments.

Then, clothes last longer, with no boiling to weaken their fiber and no hard rubbing to wear them thin.

REED RIFLES PASSING AWAY.

The diary records kept by Mr. James W. Chapman of Chestertown show that there are now living only nine members of the famous old "Reed Rifles" military company, once the pride and glory of all loyal Kent Countians.

The "Reed Rifles" company was organized about 1856, with the late Major Eben F. Perkins as captain. The original enrollment was 60 members, and included the most prominent citizens of the town and county in that day.

Mr. Chapman's records show that in 1900 there were still 31 of the original members living. But in the past few years the line has thinned rapidly, until at the present time as far as known only nine remain, as following.

JAMES W. CHAPMAN,
JAMES W. LAMBERT,
JOHN W. DUYER,
MILTON BAKER,
DANIEL COX,
ALFRED L. BENJAMIN,
FREEMAN FIDDIS,
BENJ. H. GARDNER,
WILLIAM W. COPPER.

The seven first names are all from Chestertown. Mr. Gardner resides in Baltimore and Mr. Copper at the National Soldier's Home.

The flag carried by this company is the properity of Mr. Fred G. Usilton and is nicely framed by Mr. Milton Baker and hangs in the KENT NEWS inner office.

During the past week Mr. Chapman received an inquiry concerning the living members of the company, from J. E. Hemmill who writes that as a member of the State Militia he once prraded with the old "Reed Rifles" as drummer. Mr. Chapman has the dress parade cap and hemlet that he wore 55 years ago, in a well preserved condition

ANTI-WOMAN SUFFRAGISTS SAY

"We are Opposed to Woman's Suffrage Because We Fear the Bad Woman's Vote."

Maryland Suffragists say the "fear of the bad woman's vote" is not only a ridiculous bugaboo, but a foul slander upon the good women of Maryland.

The importance of any voting class is measured by its proportion to the whole electorate and not one woman in two hundred is "bad."

Maryland Suffragists believe that "bad women" are as entitled to vote as "bad men" but that the proportional vote of "bad women" would be so small as to be negligible.

Prostitutes are a migratory class and of all women are least anxious to register and vote.

At a recent election in Denver, Colorado, 30,000 women voted, 130 votes were cast by prostitutes. About 75 per cent. of all church attendants in Maryland are women.

In the Maryland Penitentiary at the close of 1910, 1,032 persons were confined, only 72 of these were women.

Prettyman, of Rock Hall, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. W. W. White, of Piney Neck. Interment at Wesley Chapel.

Mrs. Luther Kendall, of Baltimore, is visiting her many friends here.

IN "BETTER-BABIES" CONTFST

Betterton And Easton, Md., Have Made Application.

New York, May 11.—Twenty two applications for entries in the "better babies" contest held at the Lenox Hill Settlement House, under the direction of the committee for the reduction of infant mortality of New York Milk Committee have been received from 22 cities in various parts of the United States in the last 10 days.

"The proposal of the committee," said Garrett Smith secretary of the committee, today," "is that city desiring to hold one of these 'better babies' contests under regulations indorsed by this committee and using the 'better babies' score cards indorsed by us, may have the literature and scoring cards free of cost and can conduct the contest with its indorsement, providing they have sent to the office of the committee, 105 East Twenty-second street, New York, duplicate of the indivinual score cards made out at these contests

"The committee will tabulate the results, and it expects by the end of the year to have returns from 100,000 babies. It hopes to have some data with which to establish valuable scientific standards."

Among the organizations which will hold contests in the Milk Committee's series during the year are the Child Welfare Association of New Orleans, the county fair at Betterton, and the organization at Easton, Md.

Woman Is As Old As She Looks

No woman wants to look old. Many in their effort to look youthful resort to the "beauty doctor's" prescriptions. Their mistake is that they visit the wrong department in the drug store.

Beauty depends upon health.

Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregularities and weaknesses of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders, and the faltering step.

To retain the appearance of youth you must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints, ask your druggist for

DR. PIERCE'S Favorite Prescription

This famous medicine strikes at the very root of these enemies of your youthful appearance. It makes you not only look young, but feel young.

Your druggist can supply you in liquid or tablet form; or send 50 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce's Invalids Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N.Y. and trial box will be mailed you.
