Doct. Hall,

Honored Sir,

I drop you a few hasty lines to day merely to inquire how soon the M. C. Stevens, is expected to sail again for Liberia, & whether Mrs J. B. McGill, will return in her or not. I was informed by a friend this week, that she had gone on to New York; March Nor the april Journals, have not reached here yet unless they came last Night. I suppose they will give account of your own trip, when they appear, Georgiana, informed me that she had the honor of your company down the coast, but had no time to give me the particulars but promises to do so in her next. Doct. being disappointed in not getting a paper published in Liberia, will you please favor me with one and oblige your humble & obedient servant
