Wash. 2 May 1857

My Dear Sir

The Ex. Committee at their meeting last night had under consideration your of the 21st and they agreed to your proposition to let the matter of compensation remain open to the end of the year — & they further agreed then to submit it for your decision, entertaining my confidence that you will settle it honorably.

Yours of the 1st is received with its enclosures — The opr. of Capt. Daniels shall be returned, after the Dr. puts it through —

Our Ex. Com. last night decided to withdraw the Intrepid if it cannot be sustained by itself or without encroaching as under that Sib. law —

Yours truly

W. McLain
