Do You Know

THAT THE KENT COUNTY SAVINGS BANK IS GROWING? WHY?

Because:

The public has confidence in its Officials and Directors.

Its customers and patrons know nothing but courtesy and fair dealings at all times.

The experience and advice of its officials is gladly given to its customers, and to those not its customers, in any business matters.

It pays 3% interest compounded the last day of June and the last day of December on all time deposits.

It always has a sincere disposition to help any one seeking accommodation at its hands in the way of loans or otherwise.

It teaches the truth that The BANKING HABIT begets the SAVING HABIT which brings PROSPERITY, HAPPINESS and OLD AGE COMFORTS.

SAD SUICIDE OF JOSHUA A. McCLARY

Joshua A. McClary, near Tolchester, committed suicide on Thursday night about eleven o'clock by a shot from a gun. The shot took effect in his bosom. Dr. Frank Smith was called and says death was instantaneous. Mr. McClary was in his yard at the time the shot was fired.

Mr. McClary had not been in good health lately and seemed very much worried and [concerned [about] himself and it is thought that this brought on melancholia and he fired the fatal shot.

His sad death is much regretted by his many friends as he was a man well thought of by all who knew him. He has had charge of the riding horses at Tolchester for many years and made a host of friends. He has a fine home and farm near Tolchester.

The funeral will take place on Sunday morning at 10.30 from his late home with interment at Chester cemetery. He leaves a widow, one daughter, Mrs. Emma Bowen, two sons, Frank and William and two brothers. The bearers will be Messrs. J. P. Nicholson, James Bramble, T. E. W. Crew, E. A. Corey, P. E. Hendrickson, Wm. G. Smyth. Rev. T. N. Given will officiate; Chas. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Announcement—Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hazell of Millington announce the marriage their daughter, Mary Eugenia, to Mr. J. Reid Howze on Satuaday May 25th, 1913, Waycross, Ga.

THE wedding of Miss Nellie Primrose Walters, neice of Miss Nellie Walters, of Chestertown and E. Wilfred Ross, took place at Pocomoke City May 24th.

Ended His Life.—Leroy W. Whitlock, a young fisherman, committed suicide Tuesday morning about six o'clock at his home near Town Point, by placing the muzzle of a shotgun in his mouth and discharging it, tearing away the back of his head. He had talked of ending his life several times during the past year or two. He was twenty-three years of age, and unmarried.

Never Touched Him.—Duncan Derringer an athletic young man of Chestertown, living next door to Hon. Wm. M Slay's home on Queen street thought he heard a burglar about to get into Mr. Slay's home late Wednesday night and shot at him. Mr. Slay and wife were away from home, and although Duncan missed his man, he scared him pretty badly and saved the home from being robbed.

Property Sales.—The Kent Land Co. has sold to Mr. Walter Elburn ten acres of the Chestertown Gardens near Chester bridge. This property is destined to become quite valuable within a few years.

MR. W. F. WINK has purchased a farm of 100 acres one mile from Bear, Del., and will remove there next year. Mr. Wink has been living near Chestertown for several years and it is with real sorrow that we see him leave Kent. He has proved himself to be one of our most estimable citizens.

The well known Murphy's Mill property, near Warwick, was sold by Joshua Clayton, attorney, in Elkton, on Tuesday to G. Harry Davidson for $4,600.00.

Geo. W. Ingram, has sold for J. C. Davis, the "Lorewood Farm, containing 250 acres, situated on the Chesapeake and Delaware canal, to J. Walter VanSant, of Philadelphia, for $15,000. Mr. Ingram has also sold the J. Maxwell farm, one mile from Middletown, containing 117 acres, to John Sartin, for $5,500.

A. J. HACKETT, JR., has purchased from Kate Cann the property, consisting of a dwelling and lot facing 39 feet on Philosopher's Terrace, for $700.

"NAPLEY" farm, the splendid estate of the late Alexander Harris, situated near Rock Hall, on Chester river, was offered at public sale on Tuesday and withdrawn upon a bid of $16,500. It can be bought at private sale from Mr. A. A. Harris, Chestertown, agent for the heirs.

THE Lee farm, containing 176 acres, and located about two miles from Chestertown, on the Quaker Neck road, was sold at public sale Tuesday to Mr. Jas. B. Newnam, for $10,155. Mr. Newnam was offered $1,000 advance a half hour after the sale. We are glad to welcome Mr. N.'s return to Kent.

J. P. COCHRAN has adv. in another column which will interest every farmer. Read it on page 4.

THE St. Paul's supper and festival will be held next Thursday, June 5.
