Colonization Rooms,
Washington City, 3 July 1857

My Dear Sir

Yours of the 1st came to hand this morning, with its inclosures.

I inclose you Bank of Wash. Check on Mech. Bk. Balt. for $3.000.00 & on Am. Ex. Bk. N York for $867.16/100 making the balance due you as stated in your account — Thirty Eight hundred & Sixty Seven 16/100 dollars. Have you not made a mistake in the amount paid Capt. Daniels? He shows in his account only $411.05 due him, & he appends his receipt for that amount from you.

I will lay your ofc. before the Exp Comm. at their next meeting — & I presume it is all plain enough. — Notice however over that you Estate in the McKay at 200.00 — while the whole of their baggage at Norfolk was not of 20 Bbls. bulk — if of so — & I do not think the shipment at Balt. to them wont fill up the amt. of bulk to which they are intitled free —

Yours very truly,
W. McLain
