My goods sold for which no remittance was made & hence that amount to sell.

Please therefore make the purchases as wisely as you can so that if he refuses them Warner can make an early sale.

My word is out. Savage wants money. His guardian in Africa would not let him come home. He has a wife & no one there will help him without bleeding him.

I have directed Warner not to pay him portion of the letter of credit without taking a receipt in duplicate.

If after reading the above you still think gold is better than goods, advise with Dr Ly & do your pleasure.

Your Truly,
A. B. Pinney.

P.S. Thank you for kind words to Willie
