DEATHS.

Prof. Charles T. Straton died yesterday at his home near Cliffs, Quaker Neck. He was 80 yrs. of age and leaves a widow and three children. He was originally from New Jersey, but has been in Kent for many years. He was a talented musician and well-known in Kent. The funeral will take place Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Rebecca Ireland died at her home on Water street, Chestertown, Sunday, of paralysis, in her 78th year. The deceased had been an invalid for some months, during all of which she was tenderly nursed by her devoted children. She was the wife of the late John T. Ireland and daughter of the late Samuel I. Comegys, of this county. She is survived by five children—Mr. William Ireland, of Philadelphia; Mr. Herman Ireland, of Baltimore; Mrs. John Comegys and the Misses May and Hallie Ireland. Mrs. Ireland's life was one full of usefulness, looking well to the ways of her household and yet finding time for church and many outside duties. Until her health failed she was always at her post of duty. Bearing all of her infirmities and sorrows bravely and with unfailing cheerfulness, she endeared herself to a large host of friends. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, June 17, at Shrewsbury Church. Dr. H. B. Martin and the local pastor officiating. The pall-bearers were Wm. and Samuel Emory, Paul and Spencer Comegys, Edwin Hurtt, Jesse Ireland; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

Died—John E. Ford, born May 22nd, 1878, died June 10 1913, leaves father 3 brothers, and 2 sisters. He was a good citizen of Sandy Bottom.
