LOCAL NOTES

A. L. SPARKS is having a cut-rate sale of millinery. This is a fine chance for bargains from a reliable house.

THE tenant house on the Jump farm in Still Pond Neck occupied by John Duyer was struck by lightning Monday night and the plastering knocked off the room in which Mr. and Mrs. Duyer were sleeping. They were badly scared but no one was hurt.

THE Sun of Thursday in commenting on the Baltimore—Buffalo game says: "Finally, when Morrisette could not hold the Herd down Dunn sent in Jarman, the former Washington College boy. Jarman did very well and he certainly must have something, for he struck out the side in the ninth inning with two men on bases" Jarman pitched three innings and made a fine showing.

WILL JOHNSON, a member of the town street workers, died Wednesday. Will became overcome with gas some months ago, since which time he has been unwell.

THE team driven by R. A. Younger, of Morgnec, and a Mr. Porter of Worton, collided near the College Tuesday night and both carriages were damaged. No one was seriously hurt, although Mr. Porter and child were thrown heavily to the hard road and Mr. Younger was bruised about the cheek.

A MEETING of the Federated Club of Chestertown will be held at the home of Mrs. W. W. Hubbard on Saturday evening at eight o'clock. A financial report of the Paint & Powder Club entertainment in the object of the meeting. The ladies cleared above all expenses $200.00 on this entertainment.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Eighty five persons attended the Woman's Suffrage Meeting Monday.

The bottom of the soft crab market has dropped out. Great quantities of soft crabs are being caught in the Chester river, but there is nothing in it for the catchers.

Miss Anna Leary, musical instructor and her class gave a fine musical interspersed with recitations, etc., in Coburn's Hall on Wednesday evening, which was hugely enjoyed by a large audience.

For a gardener in a small way, Mr. C. S. Porter is the champion onion raiser of this section. He has just harvested his second crop. From a plat 6x24 feet he harvested 432 large onions. The seed stock was planted last fall and yielded anywhere from 8 to 15 for one. The seed were imported from Germany by a resident of Queen Annes county.

Mrs. O. P. Leary attended the 7th D. A. Conference recently held at Tacoma Park and reports a pleasurable and instructive session. She sat for four hours on the last Sabbath of the session listening to bright and cheerful testimonies, from persons of almost all nationalities, every portion of the time being occupied with only half a minute allowed to each speaker, and then not more than one half of the people desireous of speaking could be accommodated,

"Heaped up treasure for the last days" and "The second coming of Christ" was the subject of a most interesting sermon delivered by Elder Froom of Washington, at the Adventist church here on last Sunday evening before a large congregation. Special music by the Elder and Mrs. Froom was a pleasing feature of the evening service. Mr. Froom is a young man with a ready and forceful delivery. His sermon of Sunday evening was lesson one of a series of 16.

Detroit, Mich., June 19.—That a $10,000,000 cash dividend has been declared by the Ford Motor Company, was stated in several banking houses in Griswold street today.

The bankers are so sure of their information that they even gave out the size of checks that passed. Mr. Ford, owning 51 per cent of the stock, takes down $5,800,000. James Couzens gets as his share of the melon $1.150,000. An even $1,090, 000 goes to Dodge Brothers while the Gray estate gets $1,050,000. Other big checks go to John W. Anderson and H. H. Packham, who receive $500,000 each.

WEDDING BELLS

FAULKNER—LAMBERT.

Miss Ruth Lambert, one of the popular daugnters of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lambert, and Kenneth Faulkner, of Norfolk, Va., formerly of Chestertown, were married at noon Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents on Maple avenue by Dr. L. E. Barrett. Miss Bernice Clymo, of Dover, played the wedding march. Miss Laura Lambert was maid of honor and was dressed in a blue flowered voile and carried pink roses. The bride wore a handsome white crepe voile dress with Duchess lace, satin and pearl trimmings, and carried Bride's roses. The best man was Gordon Faulkner, of Baltimore. A splendid luncheon was served to the guests who comprised the immediate family. After the luncheon the bridal party went to Betterton and from thence to Northern points They will be at home in Norfolk after July 15th.
