LOCAL NOTES

THE finest crop of hay has been harvested by W. C. A. Thompson off his town lot. Mr. Brown hauled in 3½ tons of good timothy hay.

A NEW grandstand has been erected at Radcliffe Park for the races.

WHEAT threshing began in Kent yesterday.

CALVES are worth 11¾ cents. The sale of calves indicates a shortage in cows in a few years.

P. M. BROOKS, proprietor of Radcliffe Mills, has recently had all flour machinery in his mill overhauled by milling experts, and he is better prepared than ever before to turn out the highest grade of flour. Farmers can save a dollar or more per barrel on flour for their own consumption by having their wheat ground at Radcliffe Mills instead of selling their wheat and buying flour from dealers.

THE thermometer registered 98° Wednesday.

W. A. POTE, Kennedyville, has purchased Mrs. J. B. Parrott's Maxwell auto advertised in the NEWS.

J. N. BENNETT added two fine Guernsey heifers to his herd this week which cost nearly $400. Mr. Bennett has greatly improved his stock and has now an elegant lot of cattle.

THE display of hydrangeas at the homes of P. A. M. Brooks on the Avenue and Hon. Jos. A. Wickes on High St., Mrs. Welch and Mrs. J. G. Beck on Maple Avenue are hard to excel. They are beautiful.

THE new owner of a part of Worton Manor Beach, Samuel Merritt, Esq., of New York, is arranging to build a $20,000 home on the farm. Welcome to Kent, Mr. Merritt.

MR. W. E. MOODY has been employed by the Beehler & Ogden Motor Co., of Baltimore, during leisure seasons in his tailoring business to demonstrate their several productions in cars. He now has on exhibition a 5-passenger touring car and will be pleased to have you examine it, compare values and learn the price. It is a beauty, fully equipped, electric lights, Klaxon electric horn, standard speedometer, etc., and the price will be very attractive to prospective purchasers.

A PUBLIC reception will be held at Fresh Air Cottage at Clairborne at 3 o'clock Thursday, July 10th. All invited. Any donations will be gladly received.

THE State inspector of canning houses, R. H. Hopkins, has been in Kent this week posting notices of the health laws in the fifteen canning houses in Kent. Mr. Hopkins says the cannery near Betterton will be the finest on the Shore when completed, but there is none better at present than Baldwin's at Chestertown.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Master Raymond Anthony is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

The play entitled "The Toy Shop," which was given in Comegys Hall last Friday and Saturday evenings, June 27 and 28 under the direction of Miss E. June Breimeier, of Philadelphia, and a graduate of Byron W. King's School of Oratory, Pittsburg, Pa., for the benefit of Millington High School, passed off very nicely in every way. On account of the inclemency of the weather on Friday evening the play was repeated on Monday evening which was a delight to all, especially those who could not attend on Friday or Saturday evenings. A treat of the evening entertainment was two fine recitations given by Miss E. June Breimeier, while music was softly played by Mr. F. C. Numbers, Jr. The scene represented a Toy Shop on a night in December. Cast of characters:

Timothy Tack Hammer, The Toy Maker.....L. C. Robinson
Hortense, a la Mode from Paris.....Anna Dudley
Gretchen, a German Importation.....Julia Power
Captain Fritz.....George Tonkin
Jack-in-the-Box, A Bad 'Un.....Carter Walls
