Mr Jas Hall

Dear Sir

I am in receipt today of a letter from Genl Jno H Cocke of Virginia in which he re=-quested the enclosed letters for Solomon Lenoy & James Shipwith now in Liberia to be forwarded immediately to you that they might be sent out by the M. le Stevens on the 1st May. The Genl omitted to inform me of the particular place of residence of the above named persons, and I am therefore unable to give a full direction to the letters. Should this residence be unknown to you, please inform the Genl of the receipt of these letters, that he may furnish you with the necessary information to enable you to forward them.

I am fearful these letters will not reach you in time to be forwarded by the M.C.S. In that event please inform Genl J.H.C. at Bremo, Flu=-vanna Co: Va so that he may adopt some other means for their speedy transmission.

Yours Very Respectfully
Timothy Thorp
