SHOW THE BIRDS

Be Sure To Show Your Birds at the Kent and Queen Anne's Fair in August.

How many of our readers have decided to show their birds at Chestertown at the Kent and Queen Anne's Fair in August? A great many, I hope. It will be good for them, good for the show and good for everybody who goes to the show. Good for them, because it will give them the best opportunity possible to compare their birds with what others have at close range. Good for the show, because the more exhibitors and the greater the number of birds the more successful it will be. Good for everybody that goes to the show—why if you are interested you can supply a dozen or so reasons yourself.

You know—why not do your best to convince all your neighbors—that it pays to keep thoroughbred poultry, and that it does not pay to keep scrubs, dunghills, or any of their relations. They are on a par with the "Weary Willies" of the human family.

You are, of course, coming to the show. Why not bring along a bird or two? Send in your entries now, so as not to be too late. Even if you don't win it will be lots of fun.

There is no satisfaction in going to the show and telling people you have much better ones at home and that you could easily beat the prize winners. And besides, they don't believe you. If you think so trot them out and let the judge decide. In any case trot them out—they may be a whole lot better than you think.

You may be sure that it is worth your while to have your birds there, so as to be able to compare them with the best.

A GREAT STRIKE

One hundred thousand conductors and trainmen on the Eastern railroads have completed taking a vote to decide whether or not they shall strike in the event they fail to effect a settlement with the railroads of their demand for an increase in wages of $17,000,000, or 20 per cent, per annum

The Presidents of the Conductors and trainmen's organizations in an official circular have cautioned the employes to give "just a little publicity as possible to the taking of the strike vote and of the dates on which the vote is to be completed."

The trainmen's and conductors' and brotherhoods ordered that a strike ballot should be sent out on June 15th and that the vote should be completed and in the hands of the General Chairmen by July 1st, on which date they were to reconvene in New York City.

The managers' committee desire the greatest possible publicity given to every feature of this controversy.

If the railroads are forced to pay extravagant wages to men in train service, the burden must fall on the public, for it is only from the 50,000,000 people directly dependent on these railroads for transportation facilities that the roads can secure revenue.

It is obvious, therefore, why, in dealing with the trainmen and conductors, the managers' committee hold the public's interest paramount, and why the Managers insist that the public shall have complete knowledge of every detail of the controversy.

It is the Public that has most at stake.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES.

A series of five days of Women's Institutes will be given on the Eastern Shore under the auspices of the Department of Farmers' Institutes of the Maryland Agricultural College beginning at Cordova in Talbot county on Monday, July 14. For many years this department has confined the work almost exclusively for men and the farm, but now a trial of one week on the "Shore," one week in Southern Maryland and one week in Western Maryland will be made with a program of subjects for women and the home. These are to be no theoretical talks, intensely practical work is to be done. Some of the latest improved labor saving and economic implements are to be used in doing practical work in cooking, canning, etc., by such well-known Institute workers as Miss Mary Burnite in charge of Domestic Science work in the Caroline county Public Schools, and Miss Emma Winslow, Domestic Science teacher and lecturer in Vermont and Massachusetts and assistant edi or of "Good House-keeping." These two ladies have been especially prepared in this work by educational training and practical experience and insure success in their part of the program. Mr. Geo. O. Brown who has done such successful work with poultry, will relate some of his experiences, make suggestions and endeavor to answer all questions on this popular subject. Two sessions will be held daily at 1.30 and 7 P. M. at each of the following places:

Cordova, Monday, July 14.
Church Hill, Tuesday, July 12.
Fairlee, Wednesday, July 16.
Goldsboro, Thursday, July 17.
Hurlock, Friday, July 18.

CHURCH NOTES.

Dr. L. E. Barrett preached a strong patriotic sermon in the Chestertown M. E. Church Sunday morning. He incidentally noted that good principles were of little value without good men to enforce them, and that it was the duty of every good citizen to put the best men in office.

Mr. Walter Graham, of Baltimore, delighted the congregations of Christ M. P. Church Sunday with beautiful tenor solos. Walter is a fine singer without any affection nor frills

The P. E. Sunday school held their annual picnic at Tolchester on Thursday.

The M. E. Sunday school will go to Love Point next Wednesday on their picnic. All are welcome. The members of the school and congregation will go free, others will pay 25 cents.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Christ Church elected the following officers last Friday night:

President—Miss Mayme Thompson.
Vice-President—Mr. R. Frank Elburn.
Cor. Secretary—Mrs C. N. Satterfield.
Rec. Secretary—Mr. W. R. Hiney.
Treasurer—Mrs. Wm. Vansant.
Pianist—Miss Anna Smith.
Organist—Miss Marghuerita Dodd.
Librarians—Mr. Clarence Newcomb, Mr. Albert Wheat.

A new Endeavor Society has been formed at St. James Church under the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Jester, with 50 members. The officers are:

President—Mrs. Walter Morris.
Vice President, Romie Morris.
Secretary—Miss Bessie Nicholson.
Treasurer—Miss Bessie Newton.

Chestertown M. E. Church Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D. Pastor—Services next Sunday, July 13th, as follows: 10.30 a. m., short sermon by the pastor followed by the Sacramental Service; "Foundation of National Prosperity;" 2 15 p. m, Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible class; 7 p. m., Epworth League Song service, followed by brief sermon by the pastor. Whole service one hour. All invited.

Woman Is As Old As She Looks

No woman wants to look old. Many in their effort to look youthful resort to the "beauty doctor's" prescriptions. Their mistake is that they visit the wrong department in the drug store. Beauty depends upon health.
Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregularities and weaknesses of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders, and the faltering step.
To retain the appearance of youth you must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints, ask your druggist for

DR. PIERCE'S Favorite Prescription

This famous medicine strikes at the very root of these enemies of your youthful appearance. It makes you not only look young, but feel young.
Your druggist can supply you in liquid or tablet form; or send 50 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce's Invalids Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N.Y. and trial box will be mailed you.
