Dear Sir

I wrote you yesterday and sent forward by mail two packets of letters — and by Express two parcels all for Africa —

To day I have sent a box by Express to your care for Mrs Williams of our Mission Cape Palmas — for this I now enclose to you Adams Express rec't and their rec't for those sent yesterday —

I enclose also B/L for the box sent to day and one of the parcels sent yesterday viz the one addressed to N. S. Harris. — The other was made up of Sundry pkgs of which I shall be glad to have Dr D Lyon take charge — please let all letters go in letter bag —

If you cannot send to me the various Bills of Lading in time for me to recenclose them to parties in Africa — please send forward by Ship one of each under Cover to B. P. Payne Cape Palmas —

Your kind attention will much oblige

Yours truly
S. D. Denison
