My Dear Sir

We send you to day by Express a Letter Bag, for Liberia, which will be delivered to you Monday morning, early, they say. You will please pay the Express on it — & Charge the amount to the Mary Caroline Stevens.

Mr Alvord who came for the bag, could not tell what the price would be — So I could not pay it.

I have sent three copies of Mr. Cowan's book — that they may see it — One for the Public Store — One for the College Library, & One the Government Library. You will I pursume send one to Cape Palmas, as Cowan says that is the best place on the Coast!!

I have not yet heard any thing from your Mr. Tennant — shall go there again soon as possible —

Yours faithfully
W. McLain
