PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

The Public School Commissioners of Kent county were in session Tuesday, all members of the board being present. Besides the routine business of examining and passing accounts, the board made award of several scholarships and issued certificates to teach to a number of applicants having passed the usual examination. Scholarships were awarded as follows:

To St. John's College, Carey Jarman, subject to approval of State Senator W. W. Beck. For this vacancy there were several applicants, the winner exceeding his closest competitor by a fraction only.

Charlotte Hall Academy, Edgar P. Moffett.

State Normal School, Margaret Brinsfield, Myrtle S. Tull, Alice Wood, Edith M. Collison, Marie Brice and Samuel Willson.

Maryland Institute, Mary W. Hines, of Baltimore. There were no applicants from Kent county.

Certificates to teach were issued to Bertie M. Brockson, Lillie Crownhart, Madge Willson, Mamie C. Donohoe and J. Lank Prettyman.

Miss Margaret Brinsfield was given a certificate of the First Grade.

Miss Anna Mae Ayres was appointed teacher in the High School at Rock Hall in the place of Miss Lillian Willson, resigned. The appointment of Miss Ayres leaves a vacancy at Swan Creek school.

There are now on file with the Board twenty-two applications for positions as teacher in the schools of the county, a number considerably in excess of prospective vacancies.

The Board gives notice by advertisement in this issue for all persons having accounts against School Commissioners to present same before July 29.

Mrs. Mary George Stephens, of Kent, although over 70 years of age, is still a "scholar," and desired a scholarship at the Maryland Institute. She says she never expects to get too old to learn!

Prof. A. R. Spaid, superintendent of schools of New Castle county, Del., who recently resigned that office, has been elected superintendent of schools of Dorchester county, Md. He was selected at a meeting of the Dorchester county school commissioners at a meeting held at Cambridge, and the vote was unanimous. In addition to this action, the board increased the annual salary from $1,200 to $1,800. Prof. Spaid succeeds A. Stengle Marine, who recently resigned to devote his entire time to the practice of law.

GALENA ITEMS.

Rev. Cyrus P. Keen preached us a fine sermon Sunday morning, subject: "The Good Samaritan."

Miss Vera Whitaker was leader of the League service Sunday evening, subject: "The Samaritan on Jericho Road." Miss Emily Caldwell sang a very pretty solo. "There Is a Green Hill Far Away." Rev. O. U. Moore preached a short sermon in the evening.

Master Keith Johnson, who has been quite sick, is better.

Miss Mattie Whitaker, who sprained her ankle last week, is much better.

Mrs. Mollie Miller, of Worton, spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter Hadley.

Mrs. Sara Hayes and her daughter, Annie, have returned to their home accompanied by Miss Mabel Money, of Coleman's.

Mr. Wm. C. Dempsey and wife have returned to their home in Wilmington, after spending the week with relatives and friends in and around Galena.

Mr. Willie Wood has returned to Wilmington after spending some time at his home here.

Congratulations are being received by Rev. and Mrs. Ollie H. Connelly, of Christiana, Del., formerly of Piney Neck. It's a fine son

Mrs. Theo. Dempsey, who has been sick, is somewhat better at this writing.

Miss Bernice Vansant, of Baltimore, has been visiting relatives here.

Twilight services were held in St. Andrews P. E. Chapel last Sunday by the rector, from 6 o'clock until 7. Quite a number were present.

Miss Dorothy Richards is visiting Mrs. Robert Lusby, of this place.

Miss Annie Weer, of Kennedyville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Fogwell.

Miss Annie Ford and daughter, Miss Katie, went to Wilmington last Sunday to attend the funeral of her brother.
