Dr Hall

Sir I receive your note of the 22d of June we are getting along quite well considering. we have been quite agitated by the reports that has been circulated about Roberts Port of which I have ~~xxxxx~~ wrote more fully to me me Lain the Day I receive the Locket and Chain for my wife was the day of our parade of our General Parade I being the Chief Officer of the Army I could not stop to Examine Dr Roberts said the Locket was not good nor the kind she sent for I told her to keep it as it was sent to her and am sorry she did not keep it I have got all things for money at last I must refer you to the other letters and reports for more full reports of our doings here at Cape Mount Mrs moore sends her best respects to you and miss Hall hoping you are both well, Mrs moore has been quite sick with a cold I must now close yours with respect

Ralph moore Steward ~~Superintendent~~ T. R.

if you ~~please to send me~~
Post. Scriptum Sir you will please
