BARROLL UNMASKED.

The Baltimore Sun of Wednesday contained the following article:

"Efforts are being made, it was learned yesterday, to bring out William B. Copper, of Chestertown, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Comptroller in opposition to Emerson C. Harrington.

"Mr. Copper is a member of the Barroll faction in Kent county and his plans are in the hands of L. Wethered Barroll, son of Hope H. Barroll, of Chestertown. It is said that Mr. Copper's backing will come from parts of all wings of the party. Arthur P. Gorman and the city organization, it is claimed, have promised to support him. This action upon their part, it is said, arises from their desire to punish Comptroller Harrington for refusing to vote for John F. O'Malley for State Auditor. Various county leaders on the Eastern Shore who have been opposed to Senator Smith are said also to have promised to support Mr. Copper. State Senator Blair Lee was approached to join in the attack on Mr. Harrington, but refused.

"Mr. Copper is cashier of the Third National Bank, of Chestertown, and at one time served as president of the Maryland Banker's Association. He is the chief judge of the Orphans' Court for Kent county."

Thus the public will see the "Holier than thou" faction finally shown up in their true light by a paper which is rather unfriendly, if anything, to the Organization. We do not believe Mr. Copper is a party to this combination but that Mr. Barroll is trying to use him in his scheme for power.

The idea of the Barroll faction which has tried to make the people believe that they were the Reform party conniving with Mahon, Padgett and the liquor ring of Baltimore and also to put up a man for the purpose of punishing Harrington for refusing to vote for John F. O'Malley because tke Grand Jury indicted him for bribery at the last session of the Legislature.

We feel confident that Mr. Copper would rather indorse this action than to punish him as the Barroll article says.

The mask is finally torn off by the SUN and the public can now see the confirmation of the NEWS position during the recent campaign.

The Baltimore sun of Thursday contains the following later news as regards Mr. Barroll's scheme:

FIGHT ON HARRINGTON FAILS

L. Wethered Barroll Unable To Get Anybody To Do It.

"Wethered Barroll, son of Hope Barroll of Kent county, made repeated efforts yesterday at the meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee to bring out a candidate for Comptroller against Emerson C. Harrington.

"It was sold that Barroll approched Guy W. Steele, of Carroll county; John S. Young of Harford county, and several other progressives. Last night it was reported that he had tried to start a boom for former Mayor J. Barry Mahool. The matter was not regarded seriously.

"Friends of Mr. Harrington were entirely unconcerned about the matter and treated it lightly. They said the Barrolls are opposed to him because of a personal grievances arising from an appointment made by the Board of Public Works.

"In his efforts to get a candidate against Mr. Harrington, it is said, Mr. Barroll, the younger, asserted that he would be able to get enough support in the city machine and Arthur P. Gorman in addition to some claimed support on the Eastern Shore, to assure victory.

"Most of those approached to become candidate are progressives and declined to conside, the matter because that wing of the party is not disposed to fight Mr. Harrington. Senator Lee, the progressive leader, refused to join in the plan, and, it is stated, the younger Barroll then said that he would get a candidate himself. In view of Senator Lee's stand, his followers said they were not desirous of making a fight on Mr. Harrinton with the support of machine elements as the principal factors in the movement.

"The grounds on which Barroll, the younger, expected the support of Gorman, Mahon and Kelley, it is said, is the refusal of Mr. Harrington to elect John F. O'Malley to the State Auditorship."

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

The law is positive that persons must not leave trash in the ditches along the public roads. One-half of the washes on the roads are caused by farmer's leaving weeds in ditches and thereby preventing water to flow in natural channels. The law says:

167 L. "Any person, or corporation placing any obstructions of any kind whatsoever upon the public highways or bridges, roads, lanes, streets, avenues, or alleys, of Kent County, or interfering with or obstructing any of the ditches or drains thereof, or encroaching upon the same with fences or other obstructions or any person or corporation, its agents or employees, exercising the business of a common carrier, permitting his or its vehicles, steam or other engines or cars to obstruct any crossing for more than five minutes for any one time, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to prosecution at the instance of any taxpayer of said County and upon conviction by any Justice of the Peace exercising criminal jurisdiction in Kent County shall be fined in an amount no less than One Dollar nor more than Twenty-five Dollars for each offense."

LIGHTNING DAMAGES.

A Severe Storm Breaks Over Kent County Friday Night Several Buildings Burned—Animals Killed and Persons Stunned.

A severe storm accompanied by continued flashes of lightning passed over Kent county Friday evening between 7 and 10 P. M.

The home of John Janskonski, on the Ellis farm, near Reese's Corner, was struck and destroyed together with stable, barn and other outbuildings. He had some insurance in J. G. Beck's agency.

At "Battle Shell Hill," near Abe Cohen's store, the stable belonging to Mrs. Wm. Godwin's big hotel "Hill Top" was struck and destroyed. Most people thought it was the hotel but it proved otherwise Only the direction of the wind saved adjoining buildings. As exclusively announced in the NEWS last week this property had been sold to Gustaf Lochnit, of Kansas, and he had taken possession Friday. We learn at this writing that there is now some uncertainty about the completion of the deal. Joseph N. Wheatley's agency had $150 on barn.

At Tolchester the bungalow occupied by Mrs. Jefferson L. Smyth, Mrs. S. R. Matthews, Mrs. Wash. Woodall, Miss Mamie Thompson and others was struck by lightning. The flag pole was split and Mr. Fred. Ford, of Chestertown, a visitor there for the evening, was stunned and rendered unconcious for several hours. One of the occupants says: "A number of us had gone over to the hotel in the evening leaving four young ladies and Frederic Ford at the bungalow. As soon as we could leave the hotel during a lull in the storm we did so and made our way to our bungalow. When one opened the door and saw the folks she fell in a faint and I went to relieve her while another helped with the young man. Presently a second one fainted and finally I reeled over." During all this time the vivid lightning was flashing about the house and at each peal Frederic Ford would twitch and his muscles get hard. They tried to get a doctor but no wires were in service and the reader can well imagine the plight of this company. After the storm the sick ones soon recovered but never want another similar experience. Six fires could be seen from Tolchester. The excursionists crowded the hotel and there was much scare among the babies and hysterical women. Officer Ashley says it was the worse storm on the bay for 20 years.

A horse belonging to Mr. Hendrickson on Tolchester farm was killed in this storm.

Mr. George Regester, on the Shepherd farm, near Crumpton, was milking a cow about 7 p. m. when a lightning bolt knocked a chicken off its perch over the cow, killed the cow and knocked Mr. Regester senseless for about an hour.

The big shed on Mr. Henry Price's farm, near Betterton, was struck. The big corner post was split into splinters and the hay left exposed but in nowise injured.

Harry Walls lost a horse and mule. Harry Scotten lost a horse. Britton Neal lost a horse and mule on Mallalieu farm. Wm. Felton, near mill, lost a horse as did Chas. Stevens on the Biggs farm, and John Turner. John H. Wiest's straw stack was burned caused by lightning.

The new home of Messrs. Forster and Duncan, opposite Chestertown, was struck by lightning and slightly damaged.

Mr. S. C. Loller's straw stacks on the Vickers farm, Worton, were destroyed by fire.

A large poplar tree measuring 8 feet in diameter on Mr. Strong's Duley Gale farm, near Lankford, was set on fire by a flash of lightning, burned all night and up until noon Saturday when it fell. The smell of the popular burning could be detected by residents all over that neighborhood.

One of the big oaks at the schoolhouse near Tolchester was struck by the lightning and toppled over by the wind. It was one of the grand old trees of Kent.

The elegent home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. P. Vansant, on Lent Circle Chestertown, was the scene of a quiet wedding at 4 p. m. Saturday, the participants being their accomplished daughter, Miss Gurtha Emily, and Mr. James Bunyan Hess, of Harford county. Dr. W. R. Graham performed the ceremony in the presence of the family and immediate friends of the couple. Miss Clara B. Usilton played the wedding march. An arch of evergreen with bridal bell suspended decorated one end of the room. After the wedding refreshments were served in a most delightful style. The bridal party left at 6 o'clock for their new home in Harford county. They received a number of nice presents among them being a set silver forks from her Sunday school classmates and teacher.

The Graham & Clements sale last Saturday afternoon was the best they have ever had. Mr. M. H. Baker bought Boxwell, the Hossinger stallion. Read the KENT NEWS for all the sales.

Serious Accident.—What came near being a fatal accident took place near St. James M. P. Church on Monday morning. Mrs. Nannie B. Costello, Miss Allen and a little girl, niece of the former, were driving along the public road when the horse became frightened right at the St. James hill and threw all the occupants out of the carriage. Mrs. Costello was the most seriously hurt. She sustained a dislocated and cracked shoulder bone and was very much shaken. The other two were very much shaken up but not seriously hurt. Mrs. Costello was carried into the M. P. parsonage and Dr. H. G. Simpers sent for. Dr. Simpers with the assistance of Dr. F. B. Hines set the dislocation and removed Mrs. Costello to her home at Worton Manor. Upon the advice of the doctors she went to Baltimore on Thursday to have an X-ray taken of the injured shoulder.
