ORGANIZATION FOR LEE.

The meeting of the State Central Committee in Baltimore Wednesday was attended by Senator Wm. W. Beck, Chas. L. Dodd and others. The Sun says:

"Kent county is for Lee, and it cannot be taken from him by anyone," said Senator William W. Beck last night at the Rennert. "Our people have made up their minds. The same is true of the Eastern Shore as a whole, as I see the situation. In Queen Anne's, Talbot, Caroline—the whole upper shore—no political power can change the conditions."

Mr. Beck and Mr. Dodd were true representatives from Kent. The Organization was the first to endorse Blair Lee for Senator and it looks now as if he will have a clear field.

30 Days Before Primaries.

Just 30 days remain before the primaries are to be held.

Monday, September 8, is the date set for the nominations by direct vote in Baltimore city and the various counties.

According to law, there must be a supplemental registration five days before the primary. This will be Wednesday September 3.

The registration will be limited to the addition of names, transfers and expressions of party affiliation where none has been made.

Party affiliation cannot be changed. A voter registered as a Democrat cannot change his affiliation until after the primary.

Because of the Senatorship the primary this time will be the most important ever held in an "off" year.

THE ANTI ECONOMY SONG!

In last week's issue of the Anti organ the following appeal was made to the voters of Kent county: "If you want a low tax rate and economy in government, vote the Anti-Organization ticket." This seems to imply a close connection between a 94c tax rate and economy; that the former is the result of the latter. Let us see if the system by which the 94c rate was accomplished has anything to do with economy.

The Barroll organ has for many weeks tried to feed its readers upon a diet of figures, and has used all the devices known to the printer's art to produce a spectacular rather than a logical effect.

We might do the same, if we wished to befuddle the issue, and confuse the average mind; hoping thereby to impress some readers with the righteousness of a cause which places quantity before quality.

Therefore we think it necessary only to mention that during the three and a half years of Barroll regime, the taxpayers of the county have gone down in their pockets for over $57,000 more than enough to pay the actual expenses for the period in question.

What did the Anti's do with it? Paid debts with it; but not through the system of economy they are trying to delude the people in believing is practiced. The individual who pays his debts is not necessarily practicing economy, except possibly in the saving of interest on accounts. In the case of county governments, this sometimes is considerable; and only through the rather questionable aspect of their administration can the Antis' lay claim to anything approaching economy.

It might be interesting to compare the expenses of the county during the three and half years of Anti rule with the three and half preceding years of Organization control.

In 1907 the net levy was $96,622 95; in 1908, $98,016 29; in 1909, $115,498 42; in 1910 (the beginning of Barroll rule) $121,448.20; in 1911, $102,732.70; in 1912, $106,112 23.

It will readily be seen that the expenses for running the county do not vary to any appreciable extent; if the figures favor anybody, during the years 1907-8-9 the county was run at a less expense than during the years 1910-11-12, in which period we have heard so much said about Barroll thrift and economy.

In justice to every one concerned, we might mention the fact that the expenses of running a county are to a large extent uncontrollable; economy does not enter into the question of many departments of county governments; expenses are automatic, and it is silly to suppose that one side could be any more economical than the other, where expense is settled by forces beyond any human control.

Again, we would have the taxpayers note that during the years 1907-8-9, Kent county spent $815,905.37, under Organization rule. During 1911-12-13 it spent $808,885.60, making an excess in the former period of $7,019.77.

But in the former period the amount spent on roads and bridges was $102,232.47, while in the latter the amount spent for the same purpose was $57,355.72, an excess in the first period of $44,886.75. This saving in roads and bridges is absolutely and entirely the result of a road law which the Anti organ has never ceased to villify; and the device they have depended upon to make that law distasteful to the people, is one unworthy of dignified controversy—a use of a personality which they hoped was objectionable, always displayed in the title they gave the law—the Gibbs Road Law forsooth!

Now a very little figuring will show that while there has been a reduction of $44,886,75 on account of roads and bridges—an Organization accomplishment—there has been an increase of $37,866.96 in all other accounts during Anti control—said increase being the difference between $44,866.75 in favor of the Organization roads and bridges account during 1911-12-13, and $7,019.77 in favor of the Anti's in connection with all other accounts except that of roads and bridges. So, that during 1911-12-13, the Anti's spent $37,866.96 more than the Organization did in 1907-8-9—all accounts considered. Where does economy come in?

We also think it would be well for the public at large to know just how some of Anti adherents are being taken care of.

Messrs. Chas. W. Kibler, Sr. and Jr. have been looked after by the appointment to what we may be allowed to declare as unnecessary Clerkships.

During the period of Anti rule, they have fed at the public tables to the tune of $1,689.50. Not a very large amount for two grown men to make in 3 years, 'tis true, but an amount that could very well have lain in the Treasury; and while there would have lent its influence to the matter of economy in a more effective way.

Mr. Edward C. Walters is also known to many people in Kent. This gentleman was appointed Clerk to the Board of General Assessors in direct violation to the law which provided that the local assessor of each district should act in the capacity of clerk to the above-mentioned commission. Mr. Walters pocketed $1148.75 of the public funds—and yet we have heard so much of the expense attached to the new assessment. This amount would have still further spelled economy for the Antis, in any other place rather than in Mr. Walter's purse.

Sheriff McKee has also come in for his part in the economy song. During the period of 1911-12-13, the sheriff accommodated 500 prisoners for 6303 days. He was enabled to play the host more graciously than his predecessors because a Barroll Board of County Commissioners had raised him 10c a day on each man—making the cost of a man per day 50c or $3 50 per week.

This gives pretty fair board most anywhere; true not at first class hotels, but many private families would be glad to get boarders at that price. Surely the prisoners (?) are in luck, and such entertainment should be an attraction rather than a repulsion. $3156 50 has been paid out for 18 months board for prisoners, an average of over $175 per month. That all may be necessary but it doesn't sound economical.

During that time the board has cost the county $630 more than under Organization rule.

That is, under Andrew Medders, who was the Organization Sheriff of Kent county, the board for these 500 prisoners for 6303 days would have cost the county just $630 less than it did under W. H. McKee who is the present Anti incumbent.

Then, too, the public will remember the expense that was incurred by Mr. Hope H. Barroll himself in his conduct of the Richardson vs. County damage suit. This case has cost the county upwards of $600, when it could have been settled for $150, and is not yet, we understand, settled. Mr. Barroll has not yet failed either to draw his stipend of $150 per annum for his valuable advice to the County Commissioners, and he has profited during the period of his rule to the amount of $725.

It will readily be seen, therefore, that the Anti faction is after the loaves and fishes, and their progressiveism lies along no new road.

To a great extent, as aforesaid, the way is mapped out for them, and they are compelled to travel therein. Expenses as intimated have a stubborn way of resisting all control, and no matter how loud the economy song, or how bold the display of political virtue, the public money must be spent for public obligations, and the Barroll faction have not yet discovered any new way of saving it.

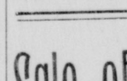

Their great talking point—the 94c rate—was the result of a $1.85 rate, levied at a time when $1,38 was enough to cover the expenses of that year. That was paying debts rather than economy. It was like pulling a tooth to get rid of an ache. It is better to stand the ache for a while and kill the tooth by degrees, rather than break the jaw bone in an effort to extract the molar. Many taxpayers groaned beneath the burden of taxes imposed by that $1.85 rate; many had to borrow from banks to meet those bills. Beware of the Anti Economy Song!
